Welcome to the 2014 Faulkner Lectures! This year we celebrate the 70th year of our lecture program. Our theme is “Women Empowered by God.” You’ll have the opportunity to hear very capable and outstanding speakers address the spiritual issues involving gender roles, empowerment, and relationships. Additionally, you’ll have the opportunity to attend special enrichment sessions and workshops designed to encourage your heart and to expand your mind.

On Thursday, we’re offering two outstanding workshops for Bible teachers of children and for church leaders. These workshops are designed to equip, inspire, and provide networking opportunities for teachers, deacons, elders, and ministry leaders.

You’ll also notice that embedded in the program is the Youth and Family Ministry Summit. We want youth and family ministers and their families to know that Faulkner University values their contributions to the Lord’s church.

As you may be aware, Faulkner University has a beautiful and growing campus. Enjoy your stay, enjoy the fellowship, and enjoy the spiritual feast.

Dr. Billy D. Hilyer, President
Faulkner University

Welcome to the beautiful campus of Faulkner University, a Christian university. We seek to be biblical in doctrine, conservative in practice, and liberal in love. As our dean emeritus, Dr. Cecil May, likes to say, “We are determined to stay ‘in the middle of the Bible,’ which is where we believe the majority of our congregations and members are to be found.”

The university is pleased to offer the 70th annual Faulkner Lectures as a service to the Lord’s church—leaders, teachers, and members all! The event provides an opportunity for instruction, inspiration, and fellowship for Christians throughout the southeastern United States and beyond.

This year’s theme, “Women Empowered by God,” addresses a delicate, controversial, and contemporary issue. Our purpose is to encourage, motivate, and inspire not only Christian women but also Christian men as we all seek to be Christians empowered by God.

We have packed full this year’s event with themed topics, special tracks, and entertainment for all.

Donnie and Sherrie Hilliard are a wonderful Christian couple, indelibly associated with “Marriage and Family” through the Cloverdale Center for Family Strengths, Our Families magazine, and the Tower of Strength Marriage Award. Sherrie is Donnie’s wife. She is never less than that and is always gloriously conscious of that, but she is more than that in her own right: An accomplished artist, a musician, and a horsewoman. She painted the portraits that hang in the atrium of the Harris-Parker (Bible) building.

Donnie was a successful coach at Faulkner University in his early years. Sherrie said, “I thought I was marrying a coach. I didn’t know I was marrying a preacher.” But she obviously feels blessed to be married to this preacher. Donnie earned his Ph.D. in Family Studies from University of Alabama and in collaboration with his major professor and mentor, Nick Stinnet, researched and wrote Magnificent Marriage. He serves as director of the Cloverdale Center for Family Strengths at Faulkner University, which focuses on strengthening marriages rather than intervening in problem marriages. He is a powerful and effective teacher and preacher and has held many seminars on home, dating, and family issues, combining clear biblical teaching with practical experience and wisdom.

Donnie and Sherrie have two children: Sarah, married to Allen Roberts, and David. Both live in Nashville and are involved with the Antioch church of Christ.

V.P. BLACK PREACHER CHALLENGE

Twenty-one years ago the beloved V. P. Black began the Preacher Challenge. Donating the revenue of two of his gospel meetings to the training of young men to preach and teach the Gospel, brother Black offered the challenge to other gospel preachers and leaders to raise or to give $1,000 or more to the Bible department.

The V. P. Black College of Biblical Studies has received more than $1,000,000 in the 21-year history of the challenge. Anyone can be a part of the new challenge by simply giving or raising $1,000 or more by May 31, the end of our fiscal year. Contact Sam Long for more information at slong@faulkner.edu or at (334) 386-7256.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

RELAX IN THE ATRIUM
The atrium in the Harris-Parker building (Bible building) provides a perfect place to visit with people, to renew old acquaintances, or simply to relax.

THE TEAROOM
Members of Friends for Faulkner operate the tearoom located in the Harris-Parker building (Bible building) in room 112. Fresh soup, sandwiches, coffee, soft drinks, snacks, and many other items will be available daily. Refreshments will also be available in the atrium and in the rotunda.

VENDOR DISPLAYS
Vendors are located in the university auditorium in the rotunda. These vendors help to sponsor the Faulkner Lectures. Be sure to visit their booths.

UNDER THE BIG TENT
Enjoy a modern tent meeting at the Faulkner Lectures this year. All chapel presentations will be held under the big tent.

LECTURESHP RECORDINGS
All lectures will be recorded by National Media Services on CD-ROM and can be ordered at the registration table or from National Media Services, Inc., 613 N. Commerce Avenue, Front Royal, VA 22630. Phone: 540.635.4181. Contact Mike McCool via email at Mike@nationalmediaservices.com. The entire lecture series will be available for only $25, including shipping.

SPECIAL TRACKS, SERIES, AND WORKSHOPS

WOMEN ONLY

There are two tracks designed for women only.

The Women’s Enrichment Track at 11:00 AM on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in HP135 will be led by Rita Cochrane of Nashville, Tennessee. Rita will address “Deborah’s Courage” (Judges 4–5), “Ruth’s Loyalty” (Ruth 1:16–17), and “Esther’s Example” (Esther 4:13–14).

Rita attends the Granny White congregation where her husband, Michael, serves as an elder. Rita recently retired from twenty-two years at Lipscomb Academy where she taught seventh grade World Geography. Mike and Rita have three grown children and four grandsons. In addition, they serve as legal guardian to a foreign student from China. Rita’s hobbies include cooking, jogging, being “Nana,” and traveling the world.

The Heart Challenges Track will be held at 1:30 PM on Tuesday and Wednesday in HP135. Two important topics will be addressed by Teddy Copeland (“Jezebel’s Cruelty”: 1 Kings 18–19) and Maranda Cochran (“Delilah’s Charm”: Judges 16). Each of these sessions is designed to strengthen one’s resolve for living for God.

FRIENDS OF THE RESTORATION

The American Restoration Movement continues to impact the churches of Christ in general and Faulkner University in particular. All Bible majors are required to study this important period of religious history when minds awakened to the possibility of Christian unity through the restoration of primitive Christianity as practiced and taught in the New Testament. The principles inherent in the American Restoration Movement continue to play a major role in the V. P. Black College of Biblical Studies.

Friends of the Restoration is an association of individuals who are passionate about the history of the churches of Christ in America. Faulkner University hosts the Friends of the Restoration series each year during the lectureship. Contact Ancil Jenkins at ancilj2262@gmail.com for more information.

THE EMPOWERING GOD

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday (March 3–5) at 8:00 AM in LC

Begin your morning each day with an encounter with the Empowering God. Jeff Miller, Eric Lyons, and Dave Miller from Apologetics Press will explore empowering aspects of God—His reason, guidance, and grace—and how these aspects empower our lives.

PREACHING SERIES

Learn how to effectively exegete the hymns to Christ and how to creatively craft biblical lessons and sermons that comfort, encourage, and challenge your home congregation. Dr. Derek McNamara is the preaching minister at Goodman Oaks church of Christ in Southaven, Mississippi.

EQUIPPED TO SERVE

The Equipping Series will be held each day in HP108 at 1:30 PM. The series is designed to address the challenges of leadership in a biblical and practical way. Each session will focus upon a unique area of leadership within the church. Michael Cochrane (Nashville, TN) will address “Equipping Elders,” Keith Mock (Montgomery, AL) will address “Equipping Deacons,” and Michael Colletti (Nashville, TN) will address “Equipping Teachers.”

MCGUIGGAN SERIES

Theology is the study of God. There is not a topic more complex or of greater importance than that of knowing God. Join Jim McGuiggan each day at 1:30 PM in LC for a stimulating and challenging discussion on the topic “Behold Your God.”
