WELCOME

FROM THE DIRECTOR

David Hester

"For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ" (1 Cor. 3:11).

"Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord" (Eph. 2:19-21).

The theme for the 82nd Faulkner Bible Lectureship is: "Foundations of Faith." The speakers who have been selected will explore this great theme in many different areas. The Kenneth Randolph Seminar on Preaching will take place Monday morning, with Ryan Frederick delivering timely lessons concerning preaching. The Friends of the Restoration lectures take place on Monday afternoon, with a banquet in the University church of Christ fellowship room that evening. On Tuesday evening, there will be a banquet honoring Fred P. Gray for his many years of preaching the Gospel and serving the Lord's church.

Lads 2 Leaders/Leaderettes provides a great service to Christians. On Saturday just prior to the Lectureship, the Jack Zorn Invitational will feature some of the best boys and girls speakers from across the country. During the week, several seminars will run concurrently with the Lectureship, each focusing on specific areas. There will be a Seminar focusing on athletes on Monday, featuring Willie & James Franklin, and Johnnie LeMaster. The College of Health Sciences will present its first Medical Missions Conference, featuring professionals from several of our brotherhood schools. On Tuesday there will be the Youth and Family Summit, with a number of men addressing topics that are relevant. The College of Business will host its annual Ethics Institute Seminar. On Wednesday, the Vocational Ministry Seminar will take place, hosted by the College of Arts and Sciences. Jones School of Law will host a legal seminar for church leaders. The College of Education will provide childcare services for the week. All the keynote speeches Monday – Wednesday will take place in the Rotunda; all Chapel services will be in Tine Davis Gymnasium.

The foundation we rely upon in our lives affects not only us, but those around us. We must build upon the proper foundation of faith: Jesus Christ. It is our hope that the 82nd Faulkner Bible Lectureship will accomplish much good. Welcome to our campus. We hope you enjoy your stay.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

D. Mitchell Henry

Welcome to Faulkner University's Bible Lectureship. We are thrilled to have you as our guest. We are a purpose-driven, marketplace-focused, Christian University. World-class faculty help students make careers a ministry to serve others. They are prepared to compete with the best in the world where 90+ degree plans in ministry, health, education, law, and other high-demand careers meet critical needs.

We are committed to sharing the gospel and to growing churches of Christ. Through your prayers and support we continue to experience a spiritual awakening on our campus, impacting the world for the glory of God. Hundreds of Bible studies happen every week, and we have had more than 120 students come to the Lord and be baptized over the last 2 ½ years. Restoring and revitalizing our Annual Lectureship is a critical part of our strategy to increase membership in churches of Christ.

Another important initiative is offering the Jack Zorn free tuition scholarship. Traditional Bible students who are committed to being ministers in churches of Christ are eligible if they will commit to serving campus ministry needs while finishing their degree. The most critical component is equipping all our students to be vocational ministers.

We hope that you will be blessed by the lessons from our faculty and staff as well as our guest speakers and ministers. We are serious about building the Lord's Church. We are glad you are here with us!

4th Annual Lads to Leaders Zorn Invitational

The Zorn Invitational brings together outstanding students from Lads to Leaders/Leaderettes for a day of competition, fellowship and scholarship opportunities at Faulkner University. Rooted in the L2L mission of developing young people into Christian leaders, the invitational provides students an opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge, skills and leadership potential while competing for scholarships to attend Faulkner.

Since its founding in 1968, Lads to Leaders/Leaderettes has equipped youth and adults in churches of Christ with Bible-based opportunities to grow in faith, service and leadership. The Zorn Invitational builds on that legacy by encouraging students to pursue their education while continuing to develop as Christian leaders.

Honoring a Legacy of Faith Dr. Fred Gray

Please join us on Tuesday following the keynote address as we gather in the University Church of Christ fellowship hall to honor Dr. Fred Gray and give thanks for his enduring example of faithfulness, service and devotion to the Gospel.

Gray began preaching in 1957 at Holt Street Church of Christ in Montgomery, where his parents were members. For nearly seven decades, his ministry has continued alongside a distinguished career in law, bringing together his gifts as a preacher, teacher, leader and advocate for others.

His dedication to the unity of God's people has been especially evident in his service to the Churches of Christ. In 1974, Gray helped bring together the Black and white congregations of the Church of Christ in Tuskegee, reflecting his deep commitment to reconciliation, fellowship and the oneness of Christ's church. He continues to serve as an elder at Tuskegee Church of Christ.

Though nationally recognized for his historic civil rights work, Gray's service as a minister has remained central to his life and calling. (Note: this is a ticketed event.)

The Sanctuary at Cloverdale

The Sanctuary at Cloverdale offers a Christian lens for understanding mental health, emotional distress, and the ways people respond to pain. The series considers how the image of God, emotions, values, and protective patterns shape the way we understand our experiences and make decisions. Practical tools will be provided for loosening the grip of emotional distress, choosing actions based on what matters most, and supporting those who are struggling. Participants will leave with language, concepts, and tools they can use in their own lives and in caring for others.
