

 Now Recruiting: ALEA Legislative Interns

The Alabama Law Enforcement Agency (ALEA) is currently accepting applications for our Legislative Internship Program. This is an excellent opportunity for motivated college students to gain first-hand experience in state government, public safety policy, and the legislative process.

✓ Paid internship

✓ Professional experience in state government & legislative affairs

✓ Networking with policymakers and agency leadership

📍 Location: Montgomery, Alabama

🕒 Schedule: In-person; preferred 5 days/week with a minimum of Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday

We are seeking students with strong communication skills, interest in public policy or government, and a desire to contribute in a fast-paced, mission-focused environment.

 Selections will be made soon — early applications encouraged.
