

Church and Community Relations Coordinator

Agape of Central Alabama is seeking a passionate Community & Church Relations Coordinator to engage churches, Christians, and the community in our mission. This position works closely with the Executive Director to nurture relationships with churches and donors while planning and implementing fundraising events and programs that support vulnerable children and families. This is a full-time position based in our Birmingham office.

The Community & Church Relations Coordinator will build and maintain relationships with partner churches and key supporters, develop new church partnerships to expand Agape's mission impact, and coordinate fundraising events in the Birmingham/Tuscaloosa area.

The ideal candidate must be a Christian whose faith aligns with Agape's statement of affirmation and statement of faith. A bachelor's degree in business, theology, social work, or related field is required, with a master's degree preferred. We're looking for someone with experience in public speaking and ministry, strong written and verbal communication skills, and the ability to be self-directed while managing multiple projects and deadlines. A personal connection or understanding of foster care and/or adoption is highly valued. This professional must excel at relationship building, relationship stewardship, and event planning.
