

Campus Minister Position Opening
Fishinger Road Church of Christ – Columbus, Ohio

The Fishinger Road Church of Christ in Columbus is seeking a Campus Minister to begin around July 1, 2026. This role is fully integrated into the life and work of the congregation, serving as an extension of the church's ministry by engaging students and helping them become part of the congregation. This work is viewed as an outreach mission to the campus community.

Fishinger Road is a conservative congregation of approximately 400 members with a long history of ministry on the campus of The Ohio State University, serving a student population of over 60,000, as well as other central Ohio colleges. The church connects with students through an active student center located near campus.

Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree from a Church of Christ-affiliated university or a certificate from a school of preaching. A master's degree (completed or in progress) is a plus. Ministry experience is preferred; missionary or outreach experience is also a plus. Strong communication skills, including experience using social media and digital platforms to promote and grow campus ministry.
