FROM THE PRESIDENT

The cornerstone of Faulkner University is the combination of its academic excellence and spiritual commitment. The university has a distinguished faculty, a supportive administration, and an outstanding student body. Together these elements create an ideal educational and spiritual atmosphere.

At Faulkner University, we are interested in what an education helps students to be as well as what it helps them to do. Our commitment to the highest Christian ideals extends to the individual, family, church, community, nation, vocation and profession.

We the faculty, staff and administration desire to offer an academic challenge, to develop intellectual curiosity and to enhance leadership and talents. Most of all, we strongly encourage the pursuit of spiritual maturity to glorify the kingdom of God.

I hope that your study of this catalog will cause you to consider the many opportunities available at Faulkner University to help you pursue your academic, spiritual, and career goals.

Dr. Billy D. Hilyer
President

LEGAL STATEMENTS

University-Student Agreement And the Role of Catalogs, the Student Handbook and Supplementary Publications

The Faulkner University Undergraduate Catalog sets forth general academic policy and specific undergraduate academic policy. The university also publishes separate Graduate Catalogs, which describe masters' and juris doctor programs; and a Student Handbook, along with supplementary publications for various programs, which

While the provisions of this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, the University reserves the right to change any provision listed in this catalog, including but not limited to academic requirements for graduation without actual notice to individual students. Every effort will be made to keep students advised of any such changes. Information on changes will be available in the Office of the Registrar and/or the Office of the Vice President for Academics. Information on changes will be available in the Office of the Registrar and/or the Office of the Vice President for Academics. It is important that each student be aware of his or her individual responsibility to keep apprised of current graduation requirements for the student's respective degree program.

All students must read and follow the rules and regulations as presented in the Student Handbook. The handbook contains the Conduct Regulations, penalties for failure to comply, grievance procedures, and a statement on student rights. Failure to follow the Conduct Regulations contained in the handbook can result in disciplinary action including suspension and expulsion from the University. The Student Handbook, as amended from time to time, is incorporated in this Catalog by reference for all purposes.

Students agree that any and all claims (in tort, contract or otherwise) asserted by them against Faulkner University or its employees that arise in any way whatsoever out of their relationship with Faulkner as students or former students will be governed either by applicable Federal law or by the local laws (both decisional and statutory) of the State of Alabama, except that Alabama's choice of law or conflict of laws provisions will not be applicable.

Students agree that any and all claims (in tort, contract or otherwise) asserted against them by Faulkner University or its employees that arise in any way whatsoever out of their relationship with Faulkner as students or former students will be governed either by applicable Federal law or by the local laws (both decisional and statutory) of the State of Alabama, except that Alabama's choice of law or conflict of laws provisions will not be applicable.

Students agree that any civil action they commence against Faulkner University or its employees that arise in any way whatsoever out of their relationship with Faulkner University as students or former students can be heard only by a state or federal court sited in Alabama.

Students agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of the State of Alabama in the case of any civil action instituted against them by Faulkner University or its employees that arises in any way whatsoever out of their relationship with Faulkner as students or former students.

University-Student Agreement

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Universities and colleges exist for the transmission of knowledge, skills, and dispositions for the general well-being of Society. A key commitment of the University is to the preservation and perpetuation of the principles of a democratic society, individual freedom, a government of law, the American spirit of community service, and personal responsibility. As a Christian liberal arts university, Faulkner accomplishes this through open inquiry, investigation, and engagement to promote knowledge, professionalism, critical thinking, leadership, lifelong learning, and service to others. In this light, Faulkner University has established the following mission and vision driven student rights and responsibilities to create a caring Christian environment for the development of the whole person.

Student Rights

Students have a right to:

- Learn in a caring Christian environment.
- Participate in all areas and activities of the University, free from any form of discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, disability, age, or veteran status in accordance with the University's Articles of Incorporation and applicable federal and state laws.
- Participate in a free exchange of ideas within the mission, vision, and core values of the University.

- Personal privacy within the mission, vision, and core values of the University except as otherwise provided the University's policies, regulations, or procedures and those provided by law.
- Receive or access the University Catalog, Student Handbook, University Calendar or other relevant program handbooks via the University website (www.faulkner.edu).
- Access modifications, enhancements, additions, or alterations to the regulations, policies and procedures to the University Catalog, Student Handbook, University Calendar and relevant program handbooks in a reasonable time frame via the University website (www.faulkner.edu).

Student Responsibilities

Students have a responsibility to:

- Uphold the principles of personal and moral integrity contained within the Bible and exemplified by Christ.
- Foster the creation of a caring Christian environment.
- Foster the character traits of trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and citizenship within others and myself.
- Respect and observe the personal privacy of others within the mission, vision, and core values of the University except as otherwise provided the University's policies, regulations, or procedures and those provided by law.
- Respect the rights and property of others, including other students, the faculty and the administration.
- Recognize that student actions reflect upon the individuals involved and upon the entire university community.
- Know, and adhere to and abide by the regulations, policies and procedures in the current University Catalog, Student Handbook, and relevant program handbooks.
- Know the modifications, enhancements, additions, or alterations to the regulations, policies and procedures to the current University Catalog, Student Handbook, and relevant program handbooks posted on the University website (www.faulkner.edu).
- Know the University calendar including critical events and deadlines.
- To read and review all mail—electronic and otherwise—from the University.

Postsecondary Student Rights under Family Education Rights and Privacy Act

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all educational institutions that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

- The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access.
- The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA.
- The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. FERPA authorizes the disclosure of certain information about students in the absence of their consent. This information is known as "directory information" and includes the following: student's name, place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and weight and height of athletes on an intercollegiate team sponsored by the University. By this provision students and parents are hereby given notice of the categories of information that the University has designated "directory information" and that such information will be provided without consent of either students or parents UNLESS the parent, student or guardian informs the Registrar in writing that some or all of such information should not be released without their prior consent.
- The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA.
- The right to obtain a copy of Faulkner University's student records policy. This policy is available in the Office of the Registrar.

Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

Faulkner University complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the applicable provisions Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (The University does consider itself a religious institution that falls within the exemption regarding public accommodation provisions that Title III of the ADA provides for such institutions.) Most campus buildings are equipped for and accessible to handicapped persons. Class schedules are arranged and other measures taken when necessary to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities. New construction is in full compliance with the Act.

Nondiscrimination Statement

Faulkner University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, marital status, veteran status or disability in connection with its educational policies, admissions, financial aid, educational programs, or activities to those who meet its admission criteria and are willing to uphold its values as stated in the Conduct Regulations.

Faulkner University is a church-affiliated liberal arts institution committed to employing a highly qualified and diverse administration, faculty and staff, which reflects the University's religious traditions, values, affiliation, and purpose. Thus, the institution invites individuals affiliated with the Churches of Christ to submit applications regardless of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, marital status, veteran status or disability. Faulkner University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, marital status, or disability in connection with its employment practices. However, Faulkner University exercises a preference in employment for those qualified applicants who are members of the Churches of Christ whose lifestyles are consistent with the mission of the University and with the beliefs and values of the Churches of Christ. The religious tenets followed by the University may also in certain situations limit or impact the employment of women in certain cases, for example, as teachers or professors in its College of Biblical Studies.

Based upon this commitment, Faulkner University follows the principle of nondiscrimination and operates within applicable federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination. As a recipient of federal financial assistance, Faulkner is required by Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, as amended, not to discriminate on the basis of sex in its admissions policies, treatment of students, employment practices or educational programs except as required by religious tenets of the Churches of Christ. Faulkner has an Equal Opportunity Plan available upon request in the Office of Human Resources. Inquiries concerning the application of federal and state laws or regulations may be referred to the Office of Human Resources.

Athletic Participation Rates and Financial Support Data

Information regarding Faulkner's athletic participation rates and financial support data is available to students, prospective students, and the public upon request. Copies of the report are available in the Athletic Director's Office.

Harassment on the Basis of a Protected Characteristic

Harassment on the basis of any federal or state protected characteristic (race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability) will not be tolerated by the University. It subverts the mission of the University and threatens the careers, educational experience and well being of students, faculty and staff. This catalog incorporates by reference as if fully set out herein the Harassment Policy of Faulkner University, a copy of which can be found as an appendix to the Student Handbook.

Students who wish to make a complaint about discriminatory conduct on the basis of a protected characteristic, including harassment or sexual harassment, should file a complaint pursuant to the Student Complaints and Conflict Resolution policy set forth in the Student Handbook.

Smoking and Weapons

Smoking or other use of tobacco on university properties or in university facilities and vehicles is prohibited. Faulkner University prohibits possession, use, and transportation on university properties of any dangerous or potentially dangerous weapons, including fixed-blade knives, shotguns, rifles, handguns, bows and arrows, crossbows, brass knuckles, air guns, swords, and fireworks or explosive devices

Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act

Faulkner University complies with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, which requires the compilation and dissemination of certain crime data and security. Campus Crime Statistics are posted on the University web site.

INTRODUCING FAULKNER UNIVERSITY

HISTORY, MISSION, VISION AND CORE VALUES

Mission

The mission of Faulkner University is to glorify God through education of the whole person, emphasizing integrity of character in a caring Christian environment where every individual matters every day.

Overview of Institution and Characteristics

Faulkner University is a private church-affiliated liberal arts based institution in the tradition of American higher education. In this tradition, Faulkner seeks to educate the whole person in preparation for success in a pluralistic democratic society. Faulkner follows the Christian liberal arts tradition of open inquiry, investigation, and engagement to promote knowledge, professionalism, critical thinking, leadership, lifelong learning, and service to others.

Faulkner University's campuses primarily serve four metropolitan communities—Montgomery, Birmingham, Huntsville, and Mobile—within Alabama. The four communities are all urban environments with contiguous suburban and rural areas. The four communities are classified as metropolitan statistical areas (MSA) by the U. S. Census Bureau.

History

Faulkner University is a multi-campus, co-educational private, Christian institution of higher education offering, associate degrees, baccalaureate and master degrees to prepare students for professions or advanced studies in Bible, liberal arts and sciences, business, professional, and career education. Through its Jones School of Law, it offers the juris doctor in jurisprudence.

Founded as a two-year Bible college in 1942, Faulkner has evolved into an independent, co-educational institution in the Christian liberal arts tradition. Faulkner has grown from a small seminary based institution to a university with four academic divisions on the Montgomery campus—the Alabama Christian College of Arts and Sciences, Harris College of Business and Executive Education, Thomas Goode Jones School of Law, and the V.P. Black College of Biblical Studies—and three extended campuses in Birmingham, Huntsville, and Mobile. Faulkner has three academic research and outreach centers—the Center for Dispute Resolution, the Cloverdale Center for Family Strengths, and the Scholars Council/Institute for Faith and Learning. The cornerstone and distinctive characteristic of Faulkner is the infusion of Christian ethics, morals, values, and concern for others throughout the entire institution. As an institution and faculty, we focus on conveying the knowledge to empower the pursuit of personal goals and life-roles and to enable daily life as productive Christians and citizens of a pluralistic democratic society. Our commitment to Christian ethical ideals extends to the individual, family, church, community, nation, vocation, and profession. Our interest is not only in what an education helps students to be in their lives, but also what an education helps them to do with their lives.

Vision and Basic Commitments

The vision of Faulkner is based on the pursuit of academic excellence with a sense of responsibility to use one's gifts for the service of others and the benefit of society. The University seeks to promote the intellectual and ethical lives of its students, helping to prepare them for productive careers as well as for meaningful personal lives and positive contributions to human progress. Faulkner's curricular and co-curricular programs are designed to educate the whole person through development of intellectual, moral, spiritual, physical, emotional and social qualities. Faulkner aims to promote the contemporary Christian mission of the service of faith and the promotion of equality and justice. As a Christian institution, Faulkner welcomes all who share in its vision and quest as reflected in the five goals and commitments.

Faulkner University is committed, in all of its policies and practices, to certain basic principles:

- To Christ: Faulkner University is, first and foremost, a Christian university. Its environment, its policies, and its practices reflect this primary commitment, bringing every thought and activity into obedience to Christ. 2 Corinthians 10:5
- To the Bible: Faulkner University embraces the Bible as the inspired word of God. Every aspect of the curriculum and every program or activity is consistent with Biblical truth and practice. John 10:35; 2 Timothy 3:16
- To the Individual: Faulkner University acknowledges that every person is created in the image of God. Therefore, Faulkner University emphasizes the importance of the individual. Faulkner University is a place where every person matters every day, and where education is directed to the whole person, with loving and caring attention to the formation of Godly character within the student. Genesis 1:27
- To Excellence in Higher Education: Faulkner University provides excellent preparation in all its programs, enabling its graduates to compete successfully in their chosen pursuits. Ecclesiastes 9:10; Colossians 3:23
- To American Ideals: Faulkner University is committed to the preservation and perpetuation of the principles of a democratic society, individual freedom, a government of law, the American spirit of community service, and personal responsibility. Articles of Incorporation, June 5, 1942

Core Values

Faulkner University was founded and continues to exist on the principles of first century Christianity. The University's statement of these Christian principles and core values is summarized as follows:

"God is God, Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord, the Bible is God's inerrant and authoritative revelation of Himself and His will, the church is God's redeemed people seeking in all things to please Him. To this Faulkner University is wholeheartedly committed."

Conceptual Framework: I Can Soar

Faulkner University has developed a conceptual framework—I Can Soar—that guides the curricular, co-curricular, and extra-curricular programs of the University. The conceptual framework captures the essence of Faulkner's mission and vision to glorify God and convey His glory in the world. I Can Soar builds upon the tremendous legacy of the University's founders by developing an understanding of Christianity's role in personal, family, and work life and the expression of this understanding through Christian service. I Can Soar is based upon the concept bridging learning and service through curricular and co-curricular requirements. I Can Soar will require students to complete specific academic content across the curriculum and to engage in meaningful service activities while pursuing their degree. I Can Soar enhances and augments the Faulkner Experience and the legacy of Faulkner's founders, alumni, supporters, faculty, and staff.

I Can Soar is driven by the mission, vision, and core values of the institution. I Can Soar consists of three key elements—intellect, character, and service—that together foster the development of the whole person. The three elements of the conceptual framework complement each other and function in an additive process—Intellect + Character + Service or I + C + S—to create the Faulkner Experience. The relevance of the three elements is reflected in the words of Martin Luther King, Jr.

“The function of education, therefore, is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. But education which stops with efficiency may prove the greatest menace to society. The most dangerous criminal may be the man gifted with reason, but with no morals...We must remember that intelligence is not enough. Intelligence plus character—that is the goal of true education.” King, Jr., M. L. (January-February 1947). The purpose of education. Maroon Tiger:

The following excerpts from the Bible reflect Biblical foundations for the three elements:

“But those who wait on the LORD will find new strength. They will fly high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint.” Isaiah 40:31

“Jesus replied, ‘...The Lord our God is the one and only Lord. You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ All the other commandments and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments.” Matthew 22:37-40; Mark 12:29-31; Luke 10:25-29, cf Deuteronomy 6:4-6; Leviticus 19:8

“For as he thinketh in his heart, so he...” Proverbs 23:7

“A cord of three strands is not quickly broken” Ecclesiastes 4:12

General Admissions Policies

Admission and Admission Status

Applicants should refer to each program in this catalog for particular admissions requirements.

The following standards apply to all master's programs at Faulkner University.

Applications cannot be processed until ALL required materials are received. As soon as they have been received, the applicant will be notified that his/her file is complete. It is appropriate to assume that the application is incomplete until such notification is received. Admission, when granted, will be valid only if the applicant enrolls during the term indicated on the application. All application materials become the property of Faulkner University; none will be returned to the applicant.

Academic Credentials

An applicant to any master's programs must have completed an undergraduate degree from a regionally accredited institution. An official transcript from EACH college or university attended must be submitted to the appropriate office. The official transcripts must be mailed from the school issuing the transcripts directly to Faulkner University. Hand-delivered transcripts, photocopies of transcripts, and print outs of grade reports are unacceptable. To be admitted as a regular student, the student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0. If the student does not meet this requirement, the student may request conditional admission as described under Conditional Admission

Admission Status

Regular Admission. A student with a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college with a major in a relevant field and a GPA of 3.0 and with minimum scores on the GRE or MAT and who has submitted the above specified forms along with the non-refundable application fee will be granted full graduate student status.

Conditional Admission. A student with a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university with a cumulative GPA of less than 3.0 or with less than minimum scores on the GRE or MAT may register under conditional admission. Students granted conditional status may register for a maximum of nine (9) semester hours. Bachelor's degree graduates of foreign, nationally accredited, or pre-accredited (candidates for regional accreditation) institutions may be granted conditional admission. A student admitted under conditional admission will be granted regular admission after completing 12 graduate hours with no grade lower than B.

Special Student Admission. A student, who wishes to take a limited number of courses for personal enrichment or for transferring to another institution and does not wish to work toward a degree at Faulkner University, may apply to enroll as a special student. Application procedures (including the $35.00 fee) must be completed.

Early Admission. Special early admission is available for undergraduate seniors majoring in a relevant discipline with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 who are within nine (9) hours of meeting the requirements for the bachelor's degree. The student is not considered a graduate student and may take no more than six (6) semester hours pre-approved by the respective College. Graduate courses taken by qualified undergraduates cannot be used for bachelor's degree requirements.

Audit. Students are permitted to audit a course provided that there is room in the classroom and that the number of auditors is not more than 20% of the class enrollment. A $100.00 audit fee (per course) is charged but no credit is granted. With permission of the professor, a student may change his/her registration from credit to audit or audit to credit during the first three weeks of the semester. After this time his/her options are to continue as registered or to withdraw from the course.

Payment Policies

All charges are due at registration. Registration is not complete until Business Office acceptance is granted. Books and supplies are available from Follett Bookstore on campus and must be purchased separately.

Checks for tuition and fees must be made payable to Faulkner University and must identify the student for whom the payment is made. Faulkner University accepts MasterCard, Visa and Discover. A fee is assessed for each returned check. If a student has checks returned, subsequent payments in cash or money order will be required.

A student may apply to defer a portion of their balance for each term. The remaining balance after down payment and confirmed financial aid may be divided into equal installments. In order to defer payment, the student must make the required down payment at registration and must maintain a satisfactory credit record. A deferment fee is assessed to deferred payments. A late payment fee is assessed for each late payment.

Third Party Reimbursement

Funds Paid Directly to the University. Students whose accounts will be paid directly to the university by a third-party sponsor, such as a company, church, or other organization, must submit acceptable written commitment to the university. The university may defer payment of the reimbursement amount until funds are received from the third party. Any amount not covered by the third party must be paid by the student. A deferment fee will be charged. If the student's bill remains unpaid contrary to terms of the third-party agreement, continued enrollment may be delayed until suitable arrangements are made. The student is ultimately responsible for the timely payment of the account. Third party reimbursement must be received by the university no later than 60 days after completion of the term. If funds are not received on time the student is responsible for the remaining balance due.

Funds Paid Directly to the Student. Students whose accounts will be paid directly to the student must follow the guidelines for deferred payments listed under Payment Policies. A deferment fee will be charged. The student remains responsible for all charges associated with his program.

Past Due Balances

In the event a balance remains after the close of the term in which the charges were incurred, an interest charge of 1.5% monthly will be added to the unpaid balance. This interest charge will continue monthly until the balance is paid in full. Students who are delinquent with payments may not be allowed to continue in classes or register for future classes. Any outstanding balance from a previous term must be paid before enrolling for the next term. Delinquent accounts may be placed with a collection agency and are subject to legal action.

Refund Policies

Tuition refunds are made in accordance with the schedule below only after the student notifies the Registrar's Office of his intention to drop or withdraw. If room or board charges apply, these charges will be based on the prorated period of occupancy during each term of residency. All other fees and charges are non-refundable. If charges have been paid by check, refunds are not made until the check has cleared the bank. In addition, refunds are not made until the conclusion of the published refund as described in the Refund Schedule below.

REFUND POLICIES FOR MASTER'S PROGRAMS
For M.A.B.S.
Drop/Withdrawal	Refund Percentage
Within 1 st week	$100% less $110.0
Within 2 nd week	75%
Within 3 rd week	50%
Within 4 th week	25%
After 4 th week	0%
For M.Ed., M.L.A., M.S.M.
Drop/Withdrawal	Refund Percentage
Within 1 st Week	100% less $110.00
Within 2 nd Week	50%
After 2 nd Week	0%
For M.C.J.
Drop/Withdrawal	Refund Percentage
Within 1 st Week	100% less $110.00
After 1 st Week	0%

Registration is considered a contract binding on the student. If the student officially notifies Faulkner University of withdrawal, the withdrawal date is the date, as determined by the university, that the student began the withdrawal process or otherwise provided official notification to the Registrar's Office, in writing or orally, of his intention to withdraw. If withdrawal results from misconduct, Faulkner University is under no obligation to make any refunds. Scholarships will be adjusted at the same rate tuition is refunded. No combination of awards, however, may result in a refund of more than 100% of the student's total charges.

Security Interest in Student Records

Diplomas, grades, transcripts or other reports will not be released until all accounts, current or otherwise, have been settled in agreement with university policy as outlined above.

STUDENT RESOURCES

Library Services

Gus Nichols Library (GNL), on the main campus, houses a library collection of well over 100,000 volumes and offers an online catalog, online databases, microformat viewing and printing, interlibrary loan and copy services. GNL has an extensive collection of periodicals and provides a variety of formats such as video cassette, audio cassette, CDs, DVDs and films which support the university's curriculum. Qualified professionals and a friendly staff are available at all times to assist students. Check the library's website for more information—<http://library.faulkner.edu>.

GNL is an institutional member of the American Library Association, the Association for College and Research Libraries, the Alabama Library Association, the Christian College Librarians group, the Network for Alabama Academic Libraries and the Southeastern Library Network.

Students with Disabilities

Faulkner University seeks to be learner-friendly for students with disabilities. Students with diagnosed disabilities should direct their inquiries to the Director of Project Key (334-386-7185) or to the Vice President for Academic Affairs 334-386-7100. Disability documentation must be provided from an appropriately qualified professional (i.e., physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist). Each semester the student must meet with the Director of Project Key in order to establish a specific accommodation plan. The university seeks to be helpful and cooperative. Nevertheless, the responsibility for learning clearly rests with the student, and the student must take the initiative in arranging for the accommodations.

Class Changes

Additions to Class Schedules

In order to add a class to a schedule, a student must have his faculty advisor complete and sign the Add Form. The student must take this form to the Registrar's Office before the fifth day of the semester. A fee is charged for each Add form processed, except in the case where the student must choose another class due to the cancellation of a class for which the student had been registered.

Withdrawals from Classes

A student may drop a course or withdraw from school (drop all courses) without academic penalty through the date identified in the Academic Calendar of each program as the “last day to drop a class with a W.” The “last day to drop a class with a W” for traditional programs is normally the Friday of the third week following mid-term exams. During this period of time a student may drop a course by completing a drop form and securing the appropriate signatures. Drop forms are available in the Registrar's Office, and must be returned before the time noted in the above paragraph. A student withdrawing from school (all courses) must obtain a withdrawal form from the Registrar's Office and must secure all signatures indicated on the form. All drops/withdrawals after the published “last day to withdraw with a W” will result in a grade of F, which will adversely affect the grade point average. A student has not officially withdrawn from a class or from school until the proper forms have been filed with the appropriate offices. In addition, tuition is charged, or refunded, according to the appropriate program Refund Policy in this catalog.

Student Records

Students may order transcripts from the Office of the Registrar by filling out forms there and paying appropriate fees.

Financial Aid and Scholarships

Faulkner University is a private, nonprofit institution. It must generate income from the following sources: student tuition and fees, grants, private gifts, endowment earnings and auxiliary enterprises. The university reserves the right to adjust fees and rates at anytime as deemed necessary.

Financial Assistance. Information concerning loans is available through the Financial Aid Office.

Financial Aid Satisfactory Progress. Students must be making satisfactory progress in order to be eligible for financial assistance. Financial Aid standards for satisfactory progress are not necessarily the same as academic standards for good standing.

Scholarships. Scholarships are available to qualified students. Scholarships are provided by individuals and congregations interested in assisting those who wish to prepare themselves for Christian service.

Scholarship applications may be obtained from the respective office of the Dean in the college of the graduate degree being pursued. All applications for aid should be submitted as far in advance of actual enrollment as possible. Those who apply early have a higher probability of obtaining assistance. Applications are encouraged up to six months prior to the date the student plans to enroll. Scholarship applicants may find it beneficial to file a FAFSA form (below) in order to demonstrate financial need.

The following factors will be considered in awarding scholarships:

1. Evidence of the student's promise for Christian service.
2. The student's previous academic record.
3. The student's financial need.

Scholarships are awarded only on an annual basis. Students desiring scholarship assistance must re-apply each school year. Scholarship assistance will not be applied to charges for fees or for auditing courses. Scholarships cannot be applied to a course that is repeated if such assistance was granted when the course was first taken.

Student Loans. Educational loans provide an excellent source of financial assistance needed to meet the expense of your Faulkner University education. Faulkner offers a variety of loan programs to meet the borrowing needs of our students. The primary source for students is the Federal Stafford Loan Program. In order to qualify for the Stafford Loan Program, the student must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to establish eligibility. The FAFSA can be completed by going to the Financial Aid website at www.faulkner.edu , as well as, the other necessary financial aid documents can be obtained from the same site.

Federal Subsidized Stafford Loans. The federal subsidized Stafford loans are awarded on the basis of financial need. The need is determined from the results of the FAFSA. The federal government pays the interest accruing on the loan while the student is enrolled at least half time. The principal loan amount is deferred until six months after the student graduates, drops below half time or completely withdraws from school. A graduate student is able to borrow up to $8,500 per year in subsidized loans. The interest rate on a federal subsidized Stafford loan is fixed and may change each July 1st. For any additional information or the necessary forms, please contact the Faulkner financial aid office.

Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loans. The federal unsubsidized loans are not awarded on the basis of need. The student is charged interest from the time the loan is disbursed until it is paid in full. The student has the option of paying the interest while in school or capitalizing the interest at repayment. The principal loan amount is deferred until six months after the student graduates, drops below half time or completely withdraws from school. A graduate student is able to borrow up to $12,000 per year in unsubsidized loans. The interest rate on a federal unsubsidized Stafford loan is fixed and may change each July 1st. All of necessary forms and information concerning applying for financial aid can be found at the Financial Aid website (www.faulkner.edu).

Repayment. The student does not enter repayment on these loans until he/she has graduated, dropped below half time or withdrawn from school. If any of these do occur, then the student will start repayment six months later. The loans are extended over a 10-year repayment period and may be extended for even a longer period based on the amount borrowed. The individual lenders will contact the student concerning repayment terms.

GRADPLUS Loans. The GRADPLUS Loan program is available for our GRAD/Professional students to help them cover additional expenses relating to their educational needs. The amount they are eligible to borrow is the Cost of Attendance minus all other financial aid.

Private Educational Loans. In addition to federally supported loans, many private lending institutions offer loans to students and families seeking assistance to meet expenses related to attendance at Faulkner University. The student can contact the financial aid office for a listing of the preferred lenders.

Veteran's Benefits. Veterans and dependents may be eligible for benefits. For additional information or questions concerning benefits the student may contact the Military Education Office at Faulkner.

University Standards

Expectations of Students, Faculty and Staff

The right of sharing in the privileges of a graduate degree at Faulkner University involves the recognition of and acceptance of mutual responsibilities. These include the recognition of the authority of the administration and faculty of Faulkner University over all procedures, policies and guidelines for governing the graduate degree programs.

Certain standards of integrity are expected to be met by students, faculty and staff and are stated here for self-discipline and support by all members Faulkner University community. Each may expect of the other honesty in all relationships, responsibilities and tasks; integrity and good stewardship in all financial obligations and dealings; conscientious concern for each other in matters of personal habits, attitudes and actions; demonstration of a spirit which recognizes the Lordship of Christ and expresses Biblical love for God and man; an appreciation for the campus of Faulkner University and a stewardship concern for maintaining both its natural and physical facilities.

Evidence of conspicuous or persistent failures in moral responsibility will lead to disciplinary action that may result in suspension or dismissal from Faulkner University.

Academic and Financial Responsibilities

Faulkner University and the respective colleges therein, are dedicated to learning and the highest academic standards. Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes in which they are enrolled except for cases of illness or other valid reasons. Notification of the professor and/or the respective college is expected in such cases.

Students who have not met, or made satisfactory arrangements to meet, all financial obligations to Faulkner University, including fees and fines, may not be permitted to take final examinations. No diploma, transcript or letter or recommendation will be released, nor will action be taken in regard to placement, until such time as all financial obligations have been met. Students will be graduated only after their debts to the university have been paid, or arrangements satisfactory to the university have been agreed upon.

Evidence of conspicuous or persistent failures in moral responsibility will lead to disciplinary action that may result in suspension or dismissal from Faulkner University.

Conduct Regulations

In matters of personal conduct, students are expected to behave as responsible citizens in a Christian community. A student's application for admission constitutes acceptance of the objectives and regulations of the university. The university reserves the right to dismiss a student whenever, in its judgment, the general welfare of the university seems to require such action. In all cases, careful attention is given to ensure that "due process" is provided to all students who are charged with violating any university regulation.

Detailed conduct regulations appear in the Student Handbook, published on the university's web site. Representative of these are the following:

1. Students must abide by published dress and grooming codes
2. The university prohibits the use of tobacco in any form on campus.
3. All student vehicles must be registered with Campus Security.
4. Suspension or other serious disciplinary action may result from the following, on or off campus: possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages; illegal use or possession of drugs; stealing; cheating; sexual immorality; assault; profanity; vulgarity; gambling; dishonesty; hazing; possession and use of firearms, fireworks, or explosive chemicals; or attendance at any establishment or event at which the principal purpose is known to be dancing or the sale and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages. This list is representative, and not necessarily comprehensive.

Academic Standards

Academic Appeals

A student who has a problem with a professor or disagrees with a course grade should begin by going directly to the professor to share the concern or complaint within two weeks of the occurrence or grade report. If the meeting with the professor does not resolve the issue, the student may appeal to the dean of the professor's college within a month of the occurrence or grade report.

Policy on Academic Honesty

Cheating and Plagiarism. Cheating on an examination or an assignment undermines the ethics of the academy and the specific Christian purposes of Faulkner University.

Accordingly, students who cheat on examinations or assignments will face serious consequences, as outlined in the policy below. Plagiarism is a form of cheating. Plagiarism is the transmission of another's ideas, words, or materials as one's own and/or the failure to credit accurately the ideas, words, or materials of another. Plagiarism also includes passing off another's work (a friend's, parent's, a website's) as one's own. Plagiarism undermines the ethics of the academy and the specific Christian purpose of Faulkner University. Accordingly, students who engage in plagiarism in papers submitted will face serious consequences, as outlined in the policy below.

Penalties for Academic Dishonesty

1. On the first offense, the student will receive a 0 for the examination or assignment. Professors shall send documentation of the first offense to the appropriate chair, the dean of the appropriate college, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the Dean of Students.
2. On the second offense, the student will receive an F in the course. Professors shall send documentation of the second offense to the appropriate chair, the dean of the appropriate college, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the Dean of Students.
3. If the student receives an F in two courses for cheating and/or plagiarism, he or she will be suspended from the university.

Professors should maintain the highest standards of academic honesty both in and out of the classroom. Professors must report and apply the rules regarding cheating and plagiarism through appropriate channels.

Grading System

Grades are recorded for graduate courses in recognition of certain levels of achievement and are interpreted as follows:

Grade Symbols And Quality Points (QP) Per Hour Calculated In GPA
Grade	Significance	QP*
A	Excellent	4
B	Good	3
C	Satisfactory/Average	2
D	Unsatisfactory	0
F	Failure	0
Numeric scales are set within colleges.

Grade Symbols Not Calculated In GPA
Grade	Significance
W	Withdrawn
*I	Incomplete
AU	Audit
R	Repeated
S	Satisfactory
U	Unsatisfactory

No grade below C will count toward degree requirements. Students are allowed two grades of C in their courses. A student receiving a third C will repeat one of the courses to improve his or her grade for that course to B or better.

A grade of W is posted when a student drops a course before the deadline specified on the university's Academic Calendar. A grade of F will be posted when a student drops a course after the specified date in the Academic Calendar. These standards apply whether the student withdraws from a course voluntarily or non-voluntarily.

An I (Incomplete) is awarded only when necessary and not for the convenience of students who wish more time to complete their work. If an I is not replaced by another grade by the last day of classes of the following term it automatically becomes an F.

AU is the grade assigned for a course audited or otherwise taken without credit. If an auditor discontinues, a W is assigned.

R is the grade assigned a course which is being repeated or duplicated. Credit will not be given twice for the same course. The last grade earned will be the one used to determine if requirements have been met and in calculating averages unless the student withdraws before the announced deadline. A failing grade may be removed from GPA calculation only by repeating the course failed.

S and U grades are used when it is not feasible to evaluate achievement more precisely or when work is still in progress and not overdue.

After a final grade has been awarded, it cannot be changed except when it is quite clear that a major error has been made. Students will not be given additional time to raise a grade.

Repeating Courses

A student should consult with his or her academic advisor before repeating a course in which he or she has a low or failing grade. The purpose of this consultation is to examine the cause(s) of the previous poor work and to discern specific steps necessary to succeed in the repeat. When a course is repeated, the last grade is used in the computation of the GPA.

Grade Point Average

Scholarship level is expressed in terms of a grade point average (GPA) calculated by dividing total quality points earned by credit hours attempted. Semester and cumulative averages are recorded on the permanent academic record and on semester grade reports. Averages are used to determine academic probation and suspension, renewal of academic scholarships, and eligibility for degrees.

Grade Reports

Students may check their final grades online at the university website. The student should review low grades promptly with his advisor. Official notice of academic honors, probation, or suspension is indicated on the grade report.

Class Attendance

Regular class attendance by all students is a requirement of the university. Class attendance is an academic matter, and excessive absences result in academic penalty. A grade of F will be recorded for any class in which the student's absences exceed 25% of the total class meetings for that course. All absences for whatever reason count toward the 25% rule. Instructors may allow students to make up work missed because of because of a serious illness of the student, or because of a death in his or her family. Students who are absent because they are away from campus to represent the university may make up work only if such absence is approved in writing by the appropriate dean's office, or by the Vice President for Academics. When a student is allowed to make up a specific test or assignment because of an absence, the absence still counts toward the 25% rule. Individual programs may have more stringent attendance requirements. Instructors post their attendance policies in their syllabi. MCJ is an online program, and does not have classroom attendance requirements.

Academic Standing, Probation and Suspension

Graduate students must maintain a cumulative graduate GPA of 3.00 to remain in good academic standing. Evaluation of academic standing occurs each term. Since many graduate students carry part-time loads, each graduate program may set this evaluation at the number of hours considered a full term, rather than by the calendar. MCJ handles probation and suspension on a case by case basis. Students should consult their particular sections of this catalog for details.

Probation. The first semester a student's cumulative graduate GPA falls below a 3.0, he or she will be placed on probation. A student may be placed on continued probation for one more term if the term GPA is 3.0 or higher during the first term of probation.

Suspension. The second successive semester a student's cumulative graduate GPA falls below a 3.0, he or she will be suspended from the graduate program for one semester, unless the student has a 3.0 or higher GPA that semester, in which case he or she will be continued on probation. The third successive semester a student's cumulative graduate GPA falls below a 3.0, the student will be suspended from the graduate program regardless of his or her GPA for that semester.

Any time a student's semester GPA falls below a 2.0, he or she may be suspended immediately regardless of his or her previous average. Grades below C may result in academic suspension or termination at the discretion of the graduate faculty. Any time a student's semester GPA falls below a 2.0, he or she may be suspended immediately regardless of his or her previous average.

MASTER OF ARTS IN BIBLICAL STUDIES

MASTER OF ARTS IN BIBLICAL STUDIES

Christians in the 21st century face tremendous moral and intellectual challenges. The sheer distance in time and space between the origins of Christianity and our contemporary world makes understanding and applying the Biblical text to our times a challenging task.

Faulkner University seeks to serve its students by helping them to emulate Christ in attitude and behavior and to master knowledge and skills appropriate to Christian servants. We offer the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies as the capstone of our efforts to discover and to communicate the knowledge of God's Word.

Admission to Master of Arts in Biblical Studies Program

The V. P. Black College of Biblical Studies seeks for graduate admission students who have demonstrated by their academic performance, other achievements and personal conduct that they are qualified for advanced study and may be expected to be a credit to Faulkner University and of service to their communities and professions. Admission is a privilege granted by Faulkner University rather than a right to be assumed by those presenting minimal qualifications. A student must be of good character and standing in his/her community and local church.

As stated at the beginning of this catalog, Faulkner University does not discriminate on the basis of handicap, race, color or national or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs. As a private, church-related institution, the university is permitted to consider information on the student's conduct and confidential references on aptitude, reputation and the apparent potential of the applicant. Religion, sex and reputation may be considered in placement in churches and church-related roles.

The four-year undergraduate program of the student entering the MABS should represent work in English grammar, composition, literature, history, education, psychology, natural sciences, languages (particularly Greek or Hebrew), the Bible and closely related subjects. Although the college graduate will be accepted as a graduate student without courses in all these fields, the student preparing for graduate study in Biblical Studies should plan his or her studies to include these fields. In some instances, especially for students whose undergraduate major was not Biblical Studies, it may be necessary to make up deficiencies before taking certain courses in graduate studies.

All applicants to the MABS (Master of Arts in Biblical Studies) program must comply with requirements at the beginning of this catalog under the heading "General Admissions Policies." In addition, the following standards apply to applicants to the MABS program.

Documents Required For Application

Application Form

Applicants should contact the V.P. Black College of Biblical Studies to obtain application materials. Applicants may request these materials at the address below, by calling (334) 386-7154 or 1-800-879-9816, or by faxing to (334) 386-7203.

V. P. Black College of Biblical Studies
Faulkner University
5345 Atlanta Highway Box 54
Montgomery, AL 36109-3398

Non-refundable Application Fee

A $35.00 non-refundable application fee must be included with a completed application form and other required materials listed above.

Transcripts

Applicants must submit official transcripts from EVERY college and university attended. The Registrar of the school attended must mail these directly to the director of graduate Biblical studies at the address above. Hand-carried transcripts, copies of official transcripts, or print-outs of grade reports are not acceptable.

Test Scores

All applicants must submit official reports of acceptable scores from one of the following: a combined verbal and quantitative score of 800 or above on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), or at least 375 on the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). A score of 500 on TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) is required of all students for whom English is a second language. Any of these scores must be sent directly from the testing agency to the director of graduate Biblical studies at the address above.

Goals Statement

Each applicant must submit a statement of approximately 250 words specifying personal goals and how the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies program at Faulkner University will contribute to those goals.

Recommendation Forms

Each applicant must provide recommendations from three people who are not relatives of the applicant, including at least one from a church leader. Official recommendation forms are provided in the admissions packet, available from the College of Biblical Studies.

Policies for Master of Arts in Biblical Studies

Faulkner University is a Christian university. A student should be disappointed to find it less than Christian or less than a university in its standards. Each student should know the academic expectations and policies of the university and is personally responsible for meeting the requirements for the M. A. in Biblical Studies.

In addition to abiding by the general academic standards detailed in the front section of this catalog, students in the MABS program are governed by the following policies.

Leveling Course Work

Students desiring admission to the M. A. in Biblical Studies program without an undergraduate major in Biblical studies should expect to complete 18 hours of leveling courses prior to seeking admission. Leveling courses would ideally include basic lower level Bible text courses plus additional upper level hours in Biblical studies related to the student's anticipated major track in the M. A. program. A year of elementary Greek or elementary Hebrew is strongly recommended. Courses required to bring the student up to graduate level will not count in the 36 hours required for the M. A. in Biblical Studies.

Transfer Credit

There is no automatic transfer of credit toward degree requirements. Work accepted for credit must be approved by the Dean of the V.P. Black College of Biblical Studies.. No work with a grade of less than B will be considered to meet program requirements. Normally, no more than nine transfer hours may be used to fulfill degree requirements for the M.A., and no more than 18 transfer hours may be applied toward the M.A. in Biblical Studies.

Student Load

For academic purposes, a student enrolled for 9-12 graduate semester hours is classified as a full-time student. No student may register for more than 15 hours during a semester or 9 hours during a summer term. Students employed full-time may not register for more than 6 hours without the permission of the Dean of Biblical Studies.

Academic Probation and Suspension

Should the student's GPA on the first 9 hours of graduate work be below 3.00, he would be placed on academic probation. A student on academic probation will not be allowed to enroll for more than 9 hours during any term the probation applies. The student on academic probation is required to achieve a 3.00 cumulative GPA by the time he has earned the next 9 hours of graduate work. Failure to do so will result in suspension for the next regular term.

Advisement

The Dean of Biblical Studies will assign an advisor to provide the student assistance with planning his/her program, with registration, and with evaluation of his/her progress. The Dean should approve each semester's schedule and any changes made. The student, however, is personally responsible for meeting catalog requirements or for seeking written approval of any exceptions.

Registration, Dropping or Adding Classes

Registration begins with the approval of a schedule of classes by the advisor and the Dean of Biblical Studies and is completed in the Registrar's Office and the Business Office. Students are encouraged to register prior to the beginning of a class. Students must register one month before concentrated seminar classes and two months before the beginning of a short course. Adding or dropping a course requires permission of the instructors involved and the dean.

Admission to Candidacy

A student who has completed a minimum of four graduate Biblical Studies courses at Faulkner University (12 semester hours) with an average grade of B may be admitted to candidacy. Grades below C will not be counted in the 12 hours. The student must submit a written request for candidacy status before the beginning of the semester in which the student expects to graduate. The request will be submitted to the Dean of Biblical Studies accompanied by recommendations from two professors with whom the student has taken graduate courses at Faulkner. At the time the candidacy request is made, the student should file a degree plan with his advisor demonstrating how all requirements will be met.

Thesis

Students who write a thesis in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies must hold "regular admission" status, must submit a written thesis proposal for approval the graduate faculty, must submit a thesis which reflects original investigation, and must present an oral defense of the thesis and supporting research. Students who anticipate graduate study beyond the master's degree are encouraged to write a thesis.

Comprehensive Examinations

A written comprehensive examination is required for the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies. The examination will be prepared by at least three members of the graduate faculty who have taught the student. The examination will normally be administered during the student's last semester. The candidate will be notified of the time and place of the examination at least a month prior to the scheduled date. An oral examination or interview may be required in addition to the written examination. Faculty who contributed to the examination will grade it as Pass or Fail. Reasons will be stipulated when an examination is failed. Students will be given the results of the examination within 10 days after the examination date. Students who fail the examination will be given an opportunity to take it again the following semester. Students who fail the comprehensive examination twice must petition the graduate faculty for permission to take the exam again.

Time Limit for MABS

All requirements for the Master of Arts in Biblical Studies must be completed within a period of seven (7) calendar years.

Application for Degree

Application for graduation should be made when registering for the last semester of work and the student should notify the Dean of the College of Biblical Studies of his/her intention. The application form can be obtained from the Registrar's office.

Graduation Requirements

Thirty-six (36) hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 on all graduate credits with no grade lower than a C are required. No more than 6 semester hours with a grade of C may be applied toward graduation requirements. Participation in commencement ceremonies is required unless an exemption is granted from the Dean of the College of Biblical Studies.

Distance Learning Limits

Graduate credit through distance learning is available from Faulkner University for some courses in the curriculum. The total number of hours that may apply to the M.A. degree through distance learning (from Faulkner University and transferred from other accredited institutions) may not exceed nine. The total number of hours that may apply to the Master's in Biblical Studies degree through distance learning (from Faulkner University and transferred from other accredited institutions) may not exceed 25% of the total required for the degree.

SUMMARY OF DEGREE PROGRAM

Faulkner University offers a fully accredited Master's Degree which can be completed through an online environment in just over a year. Our program is designed for the self-motivated, disciplined, college graduate or professional who prefers the convenience and flexibility of an online educational environment over the expense and structure of classroom attendance. Our students represent a wide variety of backgrounds and experiences and reside throughout the U.S. and overseas.

The Faulkner program is not for everyone, however. As a Christian University, we strongly emphasize ethics in all of our courses and we expect our students and graduates to reflect this emphasis in their work. In addition to a separate course on Ethics, each of our component courses is taught from an ethical perspective. We feel that in today's climate this best prepares our students for the choices they must make as CJ executives.

Another unique aspect of our program is that it is designed around real world experiences for the practitioner. Our faculty has been selected as much for their expertise in the areas taught as for their teaching abilities. Faulkner students benefit greatly from those who understand the varied topics they teach from the ground up, not just from textbooks.

A third aspect of our program involves the personal attention and care that can only be experienced in a small class environment. Our classes are deliberately small (not over 15 students). This allows personal interaction between the professor and each of our students, making this a “family” atmosphere rather than a sterile classroom environment.

For more information please email or call (386-7262 or 800-879-9816) Dr. John P. Gray. In addition, please consult the university’s website for a full description of all aspects of the program. (<http://www.faulkner.edu/admissions/graduate/mcj.asp>)

Program Description

The MCJ program is designed to integrate Christian ethical and moral perspectives with value systems within the criminal justice system through a broad-based approach to the study of Criminal Justice for practitioners and undergraduate students with a legal focus at the graduate level.

Program Objectives

Provide practitioners with a graduate-level degree to qualify them for advancement within their chosen criminal justice field; enable students without practical experience in the field of criminal justice to enter at a higher level and, in some cases, obtain employment at the state and federal levels of law enforcement and corrections; prepare students for management positions in criminal justice organizations, broadening students’ awareness of the interdependency of each criminal justice component (law enforcement, courts and corrections).

Admission Requirements For The Master’s In Criminal Justice

In addition to the graduate admissions requirements identified in this catalog; admission to the MCJ Program requires the following from a prospective student:

- A Bachelor’s degree in Criminal Justice, Human Resources, Business Administration or a related discipline from a regionally accredited institution, or a bachelor’s degree in any field from a regionally accredited institution with three years of work experience in the criminal justice field. Transcripts must be forwarded from all institutions attended to Faulkner.
- A minimum overall grade point average of 2.5 (4.0 scale) and a minimum major grade point average of 3.0.
- Graduate record exam such as MAT, GRE, GMAT, LSAT, or TOEFL not more than five years old. Exam results must be forwarded directly from the testing service to Faulkner.
- Three letters of recommendation with specific comments regarding the applicant’s academic work, professional experience, and ability to successfully complete graduate study. The letters are usually from the applicant’s faculty members or supervisory personnel.
- A letter of intent (minimum of 300 words) specifying the applicant’s interest in the program, plus the applicant’s academic and professional background in preparation for graduate study in criminal justice.
- A resume to include education and work experience.

All of the items above must be sent to: Mrs. Connie Millergren, MCJ Admissions Counselor, Faulkner University, 5345 Atlanta Highway, Montgomery, AL 36109.

Policies For The Master’s In Criminal Justice

The following is an official statement of Faulkner University’s policies regarding MCJ students. This information is designed to provide the student a working knowledge of their rights and responsibilities as well as areas of special interest to MCJ students.

Faulkner University understands and appreciates the unique needs and circumstances of the graduate program student and is committed to service. It is our promise to treat our adult students with dignity, fairness, respect, and professionalism. We believe that students expect such treatment and will display these behaviors in all dealings with Faulkner University employees.

All requirements of the Master of Science in Criminal Justice degree must be completed within five (5) years of the initial enrollment in the program. Students who withdraw from the program, prior to re-entry/re-enrollment must satisfy the requirements based on the current curriculum/catalog including completion/satisfaction of any deficiencies.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Given the fact that this is a structured degree completion program, students should recognize that they have the primary responsibility to enroll in courses in sequence with their own MCJ class. All students entering the University's MCJ program will be given an official statement of admissions status via email. All students must complete a graduate admissions test such as the GMAT, MAT or GRE prior to enrollment. Test scores must be no older than five years when received by the MCJ office.

REGISTRATION

Registration is conducted for MCJ students prior to admission into the program. Registration must be complete before the first course begins. Students with incomplete registration information will not be given academic credit for courses taken. The MCJ registrar will facilitate the admissions process.

RE-ENROLLMENT

Re-enrollment into the graduate program for whatever reason, including, but not limited to, academic deficits pertaining to grade point average, withdrawal from the program, either voluntary or involuntary, poor academic performance with grades of C's, D's or F's, or any other reason leading to an inability to complete the program with proper academic sequence, is handled on a case by case basis by the MCJ Graduate Faculty Committee which may approve or deny re-enrollment. The MCJ Graduate Faculty Committee is composed of MCJ faculty members. Upon re-enrollment in the MCJ program, all tuition charges will be at the prevailing rate as of the date of re-enrollment.

The MCJ Graduate Faculty Committee will consider the following factors in re-enrollment situations:

1. The academic standing of the student as reflected in the G.P.A. and overall performance.
2. The motivation of the student as determined by class participation, timely submission of assignments and class participation.
3. Maturity, attitude, disposition and demeanor exhibited with faculty and staff of the MCJ program.
4. Reason/s for withdrawal.

FINANCIAL AID

Questions concerning student loans, loan checks, grants, VA, ANGAP, or other military tuition assistance, contact the Financial Aid Office or the VA Benefits coordinator in the Military Education office. Contact persons: Financial Aid: Helen Pollard, ext. 7197. Supervisor: Buddy Jackson, ext. 7293. VA Benefits: Billie Scroggins, ext. 7146. Supervisor: Ben Young, ext. 7146

CLASSROOM ATTENDANCE

The MCJ program is entirely online. No classroom attendance is required.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Academic misconduct includes plagiarism, falsification on tests and assignments, attempting to take credit for another's work, and abuse or inappropriate behavior toward an instructor or administrator.

Faulkner University reserves the right to withdraw a student at any time for any academic or behavior-related cause as deemed necessary by the academic department or administration of Faulkner University.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Faulkner University selects for admission individuals displaying academic ability, professionalism, and maturity. Penalties for violations of the following regulations can range from verbal reprimand to dismissal from the program, depending on severity and other circumstances.

INAPPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR

Inappropriate behavior could be comprised of, but is not limited to the following:

- Disrespect for an instructor or administrator's authority.
- Calling the administration (Academic Vice President or MCJ director) at home with complaints.
- Non-professional behavior during academic sessions on the discussion board or in phone conversations. Aggressive and/or offensive verbal communications with instructors, staff, or administrators.
- Construed statements, mis-quotes, or circumventing of the principal academic issue. Examples: Taking statements made by an instructor or administrator made in a different context and applying them to another issue. Quoting statements supposedly made to third parties (hearsay). Combining, twisting, and molding statements to paint a scenario when the bottom line might be that a certain grade is questioned.

PLAGIARISM AND/OR COMPLICITY

Students participating in plagiarism will be given an "F" for the course. Students participating in "complicity" (example: two identical or substantially similar papers basically having similar content) may, at the recommendation of the MCJ director, have their transcripts stamped with the word "complicity" when transcripts are released. The MCJ Academic Appeals Committee is comprised of the MCJ Director, a graduate faculty member, the Dean of Arts and Sciences, and the CJ/LS Department Chair.

Students participating in "plagiarism" may, at the advice of the Academic Vice-President, have their transcripts stamped with the word "plagiarism" when transcripts are released. While the Dean of Arts and Sciences serves on the Academic Committee, the final decision of transcripts being stamped with "plagiarism" rests with the Academic Vice-President.

Disciplinary action for other forms of misconduct is at the discretion of the University administration and may include academic probation or withdrawal from school.

MCJ PROJECT, CASE STUDIES, PROBLEMS, ESSAY EXAMS & OTHER WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS

Writing assignments are an essential part of the MCJ program. They are designed to challenge the student's abilities of independent thought, creativity, abstract reasoning, and problem solving.

In order to assist you in successfully participating in written projects, case studies, and other writing assignments, we are making the following recommendations:

1. Keep a copy of your work. The instructor, at his/her discretion may keep the original work submitted by the student for one month after the end of each course.
2. Copying or taking credit for work done by other students is plagiarism and is unacceptable at Faulkner University. Be cautious in sharing your work with other students; work submitted must be yours and yours alone.
3. Please be reminded that, among others, the intent of projects, cases, problems and assignments is to provide an opportunity for students to enhance their conceptual, analytical, and diagnostic skills. The syllabus provided is mostly self-explanatory and has a "guideline" to help set the pace for assignments and study.
4. Once again, the very basis of written or problem-solving assignments is to cultivate independent thinking and have students prepared for participation in each course.

MCJ Grading Policy And Procedures

The numerical grading scale for MCJ courses is indicated on the appropriate syllabus.

Grading procedures are to be clearly defined in each course syllabus and must be followed unless consent of the MCJ director is obtained in writing or by electronic means prior to said change.

Make-up final exams are given at the discretion of the course instructor.

Grades are available online within a week of the completion of each course. Individual student login provides access to grades.

ACADEMIC APPEAL

If a student has reason to question the decision of an instructor with regard to a grade received, there is due process, which a student should follow:

1. The appeal is first made to the instructor of the course.
2. If the student has further concerns, he/she may appeal to the Program Director. The Director will investigate the student's concerns and respond.
3. The Program Director will forward the appeal to the CJ/LS Department Chair and provide the student with a copy of the final decision.

The MCJ Academic Appeals Committee is comprised of the MCJ Director, a graduate faculty member, the Dean of Arts and Sciences, and the CJ/LS Department Chair.

If any of the individuals in the committee happens to be the instructor who has awarded the grade being appealed, he or she will be replaced in that committee by another credentialed faculty member while the appeal is being addressed.

Students not following the proper protocol of discussing matters with the MCJ Program Director and, as necessary, the CJ/LS Department Chair, will be deemed as not abiding by the guidelines of their academic program at Faulkner University. Action taken may include, but not be limited to probation, suspension, or any other action as deemed necessary by the administration of Faulkner University.

GRADUATION

Faulkner University schedules two commencement exercises during the school year. One is held during the month of May and the other in December. Faulkner University encourages participation in the ceremony.

To receive a diploma, students must have successfully completed the MCJ program with an overall 3.0 grade point average. The business office must clear all student financial accounts.

Students who are eligible for graduation will receive a graduation application in the mail. The application must be completed and received by the Registrar's Office by the deadline (approximately two months before graduation) to insure the ordering of the diploma. The graduation fee must be included with the application.

For personalized graduation announcements/invitations, contact Follett Bookstore located on the Montgomery campus.

INFORMATION SOURCES

The staff of Faulkner University is committed to serving their MCJ students. When you need more information, you may contact the CJ office at these numbers: 1-800-879-9816 Ext. 132 or 334-386-7132.

TEXTBOOKS

Textbooks are available at Follett Bookstore on the main campus in Montgomery and online. Charges for books, "buy-back" policies, return policies, and refunds are determined by Follett Bookstore and, while recommendations are made, pricing is not regulated by Faulkner University. Text edition changes and new book adoptions occur at various times during the academic year. Students should be prepared for such changes.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION PROCEDURES

The MCJ Admissions Office must receive letters of recommendation from three individuals before any applicant can be considered for admission. Letters should address how the recommender knows the recommendee and the recommender's assessment of the recommendee's potential for graduate study.

Netiquette (Etiquette Practices Through Network Electronic Communication)

- Because the MCJ program relies heavily upon written Internet communication, whether in the form of research papers, E-Mail, or Discussion Questions (DQs), it is necessary for all program participants to understand and follow proper netiquette.
- It is strictly prohibited to send or forward E-Mails containing libelous, defamatory, offensive, racist, sexist, or obscene remarks. If a student receives an E-Mail of this nature, that student must promptly forward that e-mail to the MCJ Director (jgray@faulkner.edu).
- E-mail is similar to a postcard in that it may be read by a number of people prior to reaching the intended destination. It also may be miss-sent or routed and may be deliberately or accidentally copied and re-sent by others. The bottom line here is that one should not expect any E-Mail to be considered private, so do not send or forward any e-mail that might cause embarrassment to you, the recipient or Faulkner University.
- Do not forge or attempt to forge e-mail messages and do not send e-mail messages using another person's e-mail account, whether at Faulkner or elsewhere.
- E-mails should be concise and to the point.
- When replying to a specific post in a long discussion question thread, a student should address the transmitter of the original post by name to avoid confusion.
- Use proper spelling, grammar, and punctuation in all e-mails.
- Reply to E-Mails within 24 hours, if only to let the sender know you have received the E-Mail and will reply at a later time. If you are unable to reply immediately, give an anticipated response deadline.
- Do not attach unnecessary files.
- Keep communication sentences and paragraphs short and separate each paragraph with a blank line.
- When replying, leave the message thread intact (include the original message below your reply). Otherwise, the recipient may forget the original message content and confusion may result.
- The e-mail subject or the discussion questions heading should explain the body.
- Do not use ALL CAPS. Do not forward chain letters or e-mails.
- Never discuss confidential information in an e-mail or discussion questions. Remember, there is no right of privacy in any MCJ communication a student transmits, whether through Blackboard, to other students or to an instructor. Instructors reserve the right to share e-mail or discussion question communications with others as they fulfill their responsibilities as the course instructors. All transmittals should be carefully examined to insure that no confidential or embarrassing information is included.
- Use active voice in written communications whenever possible to avoid unnecessary formality.
- Avoid passive voice in written communications whenever possible.

Program Design For Master's In Criminal Justice

The MCJ Program has the following features:

- All course work completed as distance education
- Degree completed in approximately 14 months
- Degree consists of 10 courses
- Each course completed in five weeks
- Only one course taken at a time
- Estimated student time per week: 10 - 20 hours
- A maximum of 15 students comprise a class
- Each class of students progress through the program as a unit
- No transfer credits allowed

Schedule of Course Offerings

The MCJ degree consists of 10 three-semester-hour courses offered in a linear, five-week duration, lockstep progression beginning in January, August and May of each year. Only one course will be taken at a time and each course must be completed before starting the next course in sequence. There is a one-week break between each course.

Faulkner University reserves the right to alter the order in which courses are offered or to revise the list of faculty anticipated to teach specific courses at particular times. The information below should be viewed as a forecast of future course offerings. Enrolled students will be kept apprised of any schedule changes as their cycle of the program progresses.

The following hardware and software are minimum specifications to work with the Faulkner/Blackboard application:

- Platform: Windows 98, 2000, NT, or ME, XP;

Course Descriptions For Master's In Criminal Justice

5310 Criminal Justice Writing

This course emphasizes the development of practical skills necessary to complete advanced writing tasks common in the criminal justice environment. Attention is given to the use of Lexis and other on-line legal research systems. Common formats and documentation styles utilized in the legal profession are emphasized. There is special focus on the writing of legal briefs, investigative reports and memoranda.

5320 Law and Justice

This course traces the development of law in the United States, contrasts different legal forums, reviews the trial process and appellate review, and examines methods of deciding civil and criminal cases. Various legal forums are evaluated in their respective roles in the American legal system. Trial process, appellate review, and case decision methodology are explored.

5330 Administration of Justice

This course acquaints the student with organizational, administrative and financial practices as they interact with the courts, corrections and police administrations. This course presents material related to police management and decision making processes. Administrative activities of court administration and corrections administration are addressed. Various budgeting methods for criminal justice administrators are evaluated.

5340 Policing In America

This course addresses policing in America by examining selected topics. The interaction of crime and politics is presented and discussed. Functions of the police in the community are explored. Aberrant police behavior and domestic and international violence are also related to the challenges of policing in America.

5350 Corrections in Modern Society

This course provides a comparative study of corrections issues regarding administration, organization and management practices currently used. Attention is given to various management styles. Various sentencing alternatives are considered. The rehabilitation vs. punishment debate is explored in light of current developments in criminal justice.

5360 Courts

This course presents a study of the American judicial system by examining the structure and roles of key courtroom players, procedures and evidentiary issues, punishment and sentencing issues, and the moral and ethical obligations of the court system and its players. The roles of judges and juries in criminal trials are considered. Moral issues relating to judges and other key people in the court system are examined. Punishment and sentencing dynamics are evaluated.

5370 Ethics

This course applies foundational ethical principles to current ethical challenges within the criminal justice areas of policing, courts, corrections, and legal services. Material related to deontological and teleological ethics is presented. Consideration of the six major ethical views is provided. Cases of ethical violations committed by attorneys in various jurisdictions are evaluated as they relate to codes of ethics. Consideration is also given to various variations in some attorney ethics rules among jurisdictions.

5380 Comparative Criminal Justice

This course compares issues pertinent to the criminal justice systems on a global basis by reviewing cross-cultural aspect of crime, the economic impact of international crime, terrorism and its relationship to international aspects of criminal justice, punishment strategies and capital punishment. Political and state organized crime are considered. Punishment issues related to policing and crime control are explored. International terrorism is explored on a global basis.

5390 Research Methods

This course will cover research design, hypothesis testing, sampling techniques, data fathering, data analysis, the scientific method used in criminal justice research and the basic components of the research process. Data gathering techniques are presented and evaluated. Central tendency and measures of dispersion are studied. Effective presentation techniques of research findings are discussed.

5395 Research Project

This course is a capstone course that requires the student to use the knowledge and skills gained in the preceding courses by preparing a research proposal which will include a description of the problem, literature review, proposed research design and methodology, and methods of data analysis. Development of a working bibliography and outline of the project compose the focus of the initial portion of this course. Literature review and data gathering are considered. Material related to proper data analysis is presented

The mission of Faulkner University's Department of Education is to glorify God through the education of the whole person and the preparation of highly competent, professional, and socially committed elementary and secondary school educators who possess content, pedagogical, and professional knowledge, who emphasize integrity of character, who use their gifts in the service of others, and who demonstrate professional competence and leadership in their field.

The education of our future citizenry is one of the most noble and significant challenges for an individual to accept. As our society continues to change and seek sources of positive influence, the need grows for dedicated, purpose-minded teachers. Those who pursue a teaching career now will inherit the task of motivating the first generation of the 21st century to lead an intelligent, responsible and meaningful life. With these goals in mind, the vision of the Department of Education integrates the University's five commitments—to Christ, the Bible, the Individual, Excellence, and American Ideals—with the need for quality educators who will serve others with integrity.

As we consider the future and our role in it, the Department of Education has created a vision for our quest to prepare future educators. In collaboration with the broader Faulkner University community, the professional community in schools surrounding our department, our teacher candidates, our alumni, and our community, the Teacher Education Program has a vision to prepare educators who are able to meet the challenges of teaching in the twenty-first century by the following goals:

- Fostering a Christ-like community of empathy, caring, friendliness, respect, openness, understanding and integrity to establish lives of professional service in facilitating learning.
- Fostering the pursuit of cognitive, moral, emotional, physical, psychological and spiritual excellence for lives of professional service in facilitating learning.
- Fostering the preparation of highly competent, professional, and socially committed elementary and secondary school educators and leaders for lives of professional service in teaching.
- Fostering the pursuit of specialized training in content, pedagogical, and professional knowledge for lives of professional service.
- Fostering the infusion of values, integrity, and character across the curriculum, co-curricular experiences, and extra-curricular activities for lives of professional service in facilitating learning.
- Fostering the development of educators who demonstrate dedication to their pupils' intellectual growth and overall well-being in lives of professional service in facilitating learning.
- Fostering a desire to perpetuate the art and profession of teaching through lives of professional service in facilitating learning.
- Fostering the lifelong pursuit of professional excellence, innovation, and collaboration in research and preparation of professionals for the highest levels of practice and service in diverse schools, organizations and communities.

Standards, procedures, and requirements outlined here incorporate the rules of the Alabama State Department of Education and lead to certification by the state of Alabama. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance that students in the Department of Education be familiar with the procedures outlined here.

It is the goal of the Department of Education at Faulkner University to produce teachers who demonstrate the following:

1. High moral and ethical character, a by-product of their Christian commitment;
2. Honesty and integrity in all relationships, including school personnel, students, and the public;
3. Academic and professional competence, with careful attention to subject matter and teaching methods.
4. Diligence in planning and evaluation of student performance;
5. Respect for authority;
6. Genuine interest in children and youth as evidenced in friendliness, firmness, patience, and sensitivity to individual needs;
7. Willingness to go beyond minimum requirements.

Administrative Oversight

Administrative oversight for the Master of Education program will be accomplished as follows:

Master of Education Administrative Structure

- Vice President for Academic Affairs
- Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences
- Chair of the Education Department
- Teacher Education Committee
- Graduate Faculty Committee
- Field Placement Officer

The Education Agency Field Placement Officer will conduct the Practicum course, maintain records for the observation/participation of students in the surrounding schools, and direct the Internship.

The Graduate Faculty Committee will conduct an annual review of the following components of the Master of Education Degree: applications for admission, admissions criteria, and the success of program outcomes.

The Teacher Education Committee will meet each semester to review all candidates and review the program's effectiveness as well as make decisions as to solving any problems which have arisen.

The Chair of the Education Department will work with all committees and students to establish standards and continue to manage the day-to-day operation of the graduate department.

The Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences will periodically meet with the Chair of the Department as well as the Committees to review the program's overall effectiveness in meeting the goals and objectives of the program and to ensure that all decisions are made in compliance with the University's academic standards.

The Vice President for Academic Affairs will annually meet with the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences to review the program's overall effectiveness in meeting its goals and objectives. The Vice President for Academic Affairs will also be sure that the decisions made are in compliance with the University's academic standards.

Unit Accountability

Faulkner University guarantees the success of the students who complete our approved programs, who are recommended for certification by the University, and who are employed in their area(s) of specialization. We shall provide the student remediation, at no cost, if they receive less than the required minimum composite score of the PEPE evaluation. For teachers the required score is 18. This warranty is valid for two years following the valid date of the issued teacher certificate. The university will not be required to provide remediation for more than the first two years of employment.

Objectives of the Master of Education Program

The focus of Faulkner's teacher education programs is upon the understanding, integration, and application of knowledge in diverse settings with professional skills and dispositions. Our faculty seeks to demonstrate growth in this area and cultivate the development of our students in ways meaningful to communities, schools, and professional organizations. To facilitate this process and the pursuit of excellence, the Department of Education established fourteen specific professional knowledge, skills, and dispositions with performance outcome expectations for our teacher candidates.

- Developmental Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of holistic human development and of individual and contextual factors that influence motivation and learning, and the ability to personalize instruction.
- Learning Environment Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of classroom organization and management, curriculum, and professionalism, and the ability to design and manage learning environments in ways that promote students' independence as learners.
- Learning Process Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of learning as a socially-mediated, constructive process and the ability to select and implement a repertoire of instructional methods and strategies based on knowledge of the learner, the task, and the context.
- Pedagogical Content Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of the disciplines taught, and the ability to organize and express that knowledge in ways that make it accessible and useful to students.
- Communication Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of effective communication and collaboration strategies, and the ability to build inclusive learning environments, democratic communities that incorporate the needs and perspectives of students in the decision-making process.
- Assessment Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of assessment as an ongoing process involving multiple sources of information and varied assessment techniques, and the ability to use assessment to monitor and evaluate student progress and to communicate assessment information accurately and clearly to students, parents and professionals.
- Critical Thinking Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of critical thinking, its processes, and its application in reaching flexible, creative, and ingenious solutions and decisions.
- Reflective and Professional Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of the use of self-evaluation and reflection as tools for professional growth, and the ability to use the resources within the school and broader professional community as supports for professional growth as a learner and as a teacher.

- Technological Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of the innovation and integration of technology and possess a repertoire of instructional methods and strategies to provide the opportunity for students to develop and learn.
- Character Knowledge and Skill. Teacher candidates demonstrate an understanding of character development, their position as mentors, role models, and transformational leaders and the process of transformation for students of diverse characteristics in diverse settings.
- Dialogue Skill and Disposition. Teacher candidates demonstrate both an understanding of dialogue, an attitude/preference to engage in dialogue and an application of dialogue as a tool to facilitate learning and understanding across diversity.
- Care Skill and Disposition. Teacher candidates demonstrate both an understanding of the process to care for each student and an attitude/preference to value each student.
- Learning Potential Skill and Disposition. Teacher candidates demonstrate an attitude/preference that each student has the potential to learn, and seek to facilitate each student's learning.
- Calling Skill and Disposition. Teacher candidates demonstrate an attitude that incorporates the spiritual dimensions of teaching and learning.

Admission Requirements For Master Of Education

Alternative Fifth Year (Class A) Degree:

The Department of Education of Faulkner University seeks for graduate admission, students who have demonstrated by their academic performance, other achievements, and personal conduct that they are qualified for advanced study and may be expected to be a credit to Faulkner University and of service to their communities and professions. This master's program meets Faulkner University's minimum requirements for this university. The Alternative Class A is identical to the purposes for preparing teachers at the Class B level in the same teaching field, but expects that candidates will develop competencies over and beyond those expected at the Class B level including subject matter knowledge, student development, diversity, instructional strategies, classroom management and learning environment, communication, planning, assessment, professionalism, and collaboration. This program will lead to a Master's Degree and teaching certificate and candidates must meet the minimum requirements for this degree at Faulkner University. The Alternative A Fifth Year Certificate is offered in the following content choices: History, Mathematics, Biology, Physical Education, English, and Elementary Education. Admission to this program is granted by the Teacher Education Committee and the committee has set the following criteria for admittance into the Master's Program.

Academic Credentials:

Applicants for the Master of Education Degree (leading to the Alternative A Certificate) must have completed an undergraduate degree in the specific discipline from a regionally accredited institution. In extenuating circumstances, the head of the unit may request a waiver of admission requirements from the State Superintendent of Education. An official transcript from EACH college or university attended must be submitted to the director of graduate studies. The transcripts must be sent directly from the other school. Hand-delivered transcripts, photocopies, or print outs of grade reports are unacceptable.

Transcripts will be evaluated by the Chair of the Education Department as part of the admissions process. To be admitted, the student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5.

Aptitude Score

Applicants must submit a passing score from one of the following: a combined verbal and quantitative score of 700 or above on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or a score of at least 370 on the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) to be eligible for graduate studies at Faulkner University. In order to be accepted into the Teacher Education Program, students must submit a passing score on both the Praxis II and Alabama Prospective Teachers Test (APTT) examinations. Students must have a passing score in the appropriate area of study on the Praxis II test dependent on the chosen area of study. Students whose first language is not English must also submit acceptable TOEFL scores, as stipulated in the beginning of the catalog.

Goals Statement

Applicants must submit a statement of approximately 250 words specifying personal goals for their life and how earning a Master of Education Degree at Faulkner University will contribute to those lifetime goals.

Recommendation Forms

Applicants must provide recommendations from three people who are not relatives of the applicant. Official recommendation forms are provided in an admission's packet.

Non-refundable Application Fee:

A $35.00 non-refundable application fee must be included with a completed application form and other required materials listed above.

Summary of Required Application Materials:

1. Completed application form.
2. An official transcript from EVERY college or university attended showing at least a 2.5 GPA on the transcript granting the Bachelor's Degree or a 2.5 on a Master's degree.
3. Passing score from the GRE or the MAT.
4. Passing scores from the Praxis II and APTT (Can be taken after entering the program)
5. Passing score from TOEFL (if applicable).
6. Personal statement of lifetime goals.
7. Three (3) recommendations.
8. $35.00 non-refundable application fee.

Regular Admission:

A student with a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college and a GPA of 2.5 with passing scores on the GRE or MAT, the Praxis II and the APTT, and who has submitted the above specified forms along with the non-refundable application fee will be granted full unconditional admission status pending Teacher Education Committee approval. If the GRE/MAT scores are older than ten years, the candidate may be required to retake one of the entrance exams for admission.

Conditional Admission:

The Teacher Education Committee must approve any students admitted under special conditions as in the undergraduate program. Praxis II must be retaken if scores are not at the passing rate within the first 12 hours of enrollment.

Special Student Admission:

A student who wishes to take a limited number of courses for personal enrichment or for transferring to another institution and does not wish to work toward a degree at Faulkner University, may apply to enroll as a transient student. Application procedures (including the $35.00 fee) must be completed. Early admission is possible for undergraduate seniors.

Early Admission:

Special early admission is available for undergraduate seniors with a cumulative GPA 3.0 who are within nine (9) semester hours of meeting the requirements for the Bachelor's Degree. The student is not considered a graduate student and may take no more than six (6) semester hours pre-approved by the Chair of the Education Department. Graduate courses taken by qualified undergraduates cannot be used for the Bachelor's Degree requirements. The same course cannot be taken for undergraduate as well as graduate credit. There must be as many hours of coursework appropriate to the curriculum as the unit requires in the teaching field of the state-approved Class B program.

Candidates must have completed courses including humanities, social science, science, and mathematics in the general studies. In addition, the Elementary Education Alt A candidate must have earned at least 12 semester hours in English language arts, 12 semester hours in mathematics, 12 semester hours in science, and 12 semester hours in social science. A candidate who wishes to earn certification in a teaching field must have an academic major in the teaching field or 32 semester hours in a specialized area of study in a discipline including at least 19 hours of upper-division courses. English Language Arts must additionally have the following courses on the transcript: English (including grammar and reading), English language arts, speech, drama or theatre, and journalism. General Social Science must additionally have the following courses on the transcript: general social science, history, political science, economics, and geography. P-12 programs must have an academic major in the teaching field or 32 hours in field with 19 upper-division courses.

Admission into Teacher Education

When a Master of Education candidate has completed twelve (12) hours of coursework, application must be made for admission into Teacher Education. In addition to completion of the required coursework, the following conditions must also be met:

- Completion of the application form
- A minimum grade point average of 3.0 in the Master of Education Program
- All HQT or leveling courses have been completed (4 X 12 for Elementary and 32/19 for Secondary)
- Satisfactory ratings on approved clinical experiences in a variety of settings totaling a minimum of 80 hours, posted in Developmental Portfolio in LiveText and submitted for review
- Passing score on all three (3) sections of the Alabama Prospective Teacher Test (APTTP)
- Passing score on Praxis II Test for your subject area

- Submission of three approved faculty recommendations; 1 from Department Chair and 2 from other faculty
- Interview with the Department Chair and one instructor from the content area to view and approve completed Developmental Portfolio in LiveText™
- Proof of active membership in SAEA, AEA, or another organization for liability coverage
- Completion of Developmental Portfolio
- Interview with the Teacher Education Committee for acceptance
- Portfolio

Applicants for admission into Teacher Education must submit completion of the following items in the LiveText™ Portfolio and include references to the last four (4) dispositions from the Conceptual Framework. Some of this material cannot be completed until the Internship:

- Program Inventory: Monitoring through the gateways in the program
- Why I Want to Teach: Revision of the essay from your application packet
- Mission Statement and Resume: State your personal mission in life or particular fundamental beliefs that affect and guide your teaching. Reflect on this throughout your portfolio. Correlate this with the institutional mission statement.
- Teaching Philosophy: Detail in a paragraph or two your philosophy of teaching and education.
- Clinical Experiences: Reports of your visits and observations in the schools
- Critical Course Content: Include significant course content knowledge attained during each course taken in the program. You may attach significant artifacts that demonstrate competencies on state, local, and national standards.
- Conceptual Framework: Paragraph on how you have met the program requirements
- Other Artifacts and Lesson Plans: List each class taken and give examples of artifacts from each class.
- Recommendations: Scan three (3) faculty recommendations AND the three (3) community recommendations from your application packet into your portfolio.
- Classroom Management Plans: How you will manage your classroom with rules and procedures.
- Internship Assignments

Policies For The Master of Education (ALTERNATE A: FIFTH YEAR CERTIFICATION)

Curriculum Requirements

The Master of Education Degree leading to the Alternative A Fifth Year Certificate is a 40-hour program with 24 hours in core courses and 16 more hours being offered in content courses. Toward the completion of the coursework, a written comprehensive examination and an oral examination, or interview, are required. The content choices are the following: History, Mathematics, Biology, Physical Education, English, and Elementary Education.

With a strong core and a variety of content areas, the Master of Education Degree provides a broad base as well as specific content areas to anchor a career as a classroom teacher. There is also room for further growth if the candidate wishes to further his or her education beyond the Master's Degree.

Course Schedules

The Master of Education Degree offers course scheduling which will accommodate students who are involved in full-time professions and/or reside a considerable distance from Montgomery. The courses are offered from 6 – 9 P.M. two nights a week. The professor of the class will make the decision to have study teams or to have two class meetings each week. The study teams are self-selected, and each team will choose where and when the team will meet. Study teams will meet for three hours a week. There will be a study team meeting for every meeting with the instructor. The study teams are just as important as the time with the professor, and attendance is mandatory for both meetings. In the summer, classes will meet 5 sessions of 4 hours each with an all day Saturday class. There will also be 4 sessions of study group meetings for 4 hours each.

Practicum Course

A Practicum course will be used to store twenty (20) observation hours/semester in which students will observe in a wide variety of school settings so as to be submerged in the actual world of the teacher and have a diverse set of school experiences. This Practicum is patterned after the undergraduate program and will be coordinated in the same way. This class will use a combination of didactic and experiential teaching methods. This is a necessary component of this degree for the new teacher to actually get the feel for the life of teaching. These hours will be coordinated with the Field Experience Directory and assigned faculty members in the Department of Education. Eighty (80) practicum hours are required for admission to Teacher Education, and at least two hundred one (201) hours are required for admission to Internship.

Internship

Because students in the Alternative Master's Degree program have not had a background in education or the benefit of an Internship, a full semester Internship is provided. This Internship is patterned after the undergraduate program and will be coordinated in the same way. Rules and regulations which direct the undergraduate program will apply to this program as well (2 separate placements, full responsibilities of the teacher for at least 20 days including at least 10 consecutive days). Policies, procedures, and application forms for the Internship may be found in the Internship Handbook. For students who have full-time teaching jobs, the internship may be completed during employment, provided that the employment consists of a full-time position in the area of certification being sought. These students must accumulate the majority of practicum hours at the level of instruction that they do not teach. For example, an elementary major who is teaching grade two should engage in practicum experiences primarily in grades four through six. An English major who is teaching grade eight should engage primarily in practicum experiences in grades ten through twelve.

Graduation Requirements

Forty (40) hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 on all graduate credits with no grade lower than a C in any given course are required for the Alternative A Certificate. No more than 6 semester hours of C may be applied toward graduation requirements. Participation in commencement ceremonies is required unless an exemption is granted from the Chair of the Education Department. Commencement is held every December and May.

Comprehensive Examinations:

The Major Field Test will be used as the final exam to test content knowledge in Education. The examination will normally be administered during the student's last semester. The candidate will be notified of the time and place of the examination at least a month prior to the scheduled date. The Faulkner University Evaluation System and the electronic portfolio including artifacts generated from every course as well as internship journals and the ISL Project will be examination of pedagogy. An oral examination or interview is also required.

Faculty will grade all components as to a pass/fail. More than one faculty member will grade each portfolio. Reasons will be stipulated when an examination is failed. Students who fail the examination will be given an opportunity to take it again. Students who fail the comprehensive examination twice must retake some coursework for remediation purposes in order to take the exam again.

Time Limit

All requirements for the Master of Education Degree must be completed within a period of five (5) calendar years.

Application for Degree

Application for graduation should be made when registering for the last semester of work and the student should notify the Chair of the Education Department of his/her intention. The application form can be obtained from the Registrar's office.

Grading, Transcripts and Transfer Hours

Faulkner University, by its mission statement, is well known as a Christian university. Each student should know, understand, and accept the academic expectations and policies of the University. Each student is personally responsible for meeting the different requirements for the Master of Education Degree. The University reserves the right to adapt its programs and policies as may be necessary. Students with matters of concern should consult with the Chair of the Education Department.

Audit

Students are permitted to audit a course provided that there is room in the classroom and that the number of auditors is not more than 20% of the class enrollment. A fee of $100.00 (per course) is charged, but no credit is granted. With permission of the professor, a student may change his/her registration from credit to audit or audit to credit during the first three weeks of the semester. After this time his/her options are to continue as registered or to withdraw from the course.

Transfer Credits

A student who has earned graduate credit in a Master of Education program from other institutions will be evaluated by the Teacher Education Committee to ascertain courses which can be applied to Faulkner's program. Students from a regionally accredited institution may transfer a maximum of six (6) semester hours into the Master of Education program. The Chair of the Education Department must approve transfer hours.

Student Load

The unit of credit is the semester hour. One semester hour of credit represents approximately fifteen hours of lecture-discussion activity and examinations. Full-Time Load. For academic purposes, a student enrolled for six (6) graduate semester hours is classified as a full-time student in this Master's program. Maximum Load. No student may register for more than twelve (12 hrs.) during a semester or six (6) hours during a summer term. Students employed full-time may not register for more than six (6) hours of classes.

Deficient Course Work

Students desiring admission to the Master of Education degree should expect to complete some hours of coursework in deficient areas before completing this degree. In the Elementary Education degree, there must be a minimum of 12 hours in English/Language Arts, Math, Science and Social Sciences. In the other 6 content areas, there must be listed on the transcript 32 hours of content courses, and of those courses, 19 must be upper level courses. Courses required to bring the student up to graduate level will not count in the hours required for the Master of Education Degree. A student who has taken a course on the undergraduate level may not take the identical course again at the graduate level for credit.

Advisement

The Chair of the Education Department will assign an advisor to provide the student assistance with planning his/her program, with registration and with evaluation of his/her progress. The advisor should approve each semester's schedule and any changes made. The student, however, is personally responsible for meeting University catalog requirements or for seeking written approval of any exceptions. Ultimately, it is the student who bears responsibility for directing his or her progress through the program.

Registration

Registration begins with the approval of a schedule of classes by the advisor and the Chair of the Education department and is completed in Registrar's Office and the Business Office. Students are encouraged to register prior to the beginning of a class.

Class Attendance

Regular class attendance is a requirement of this degree program. Because of the accelerated format of the classes and having only eight (8) class meetings, students are strongly encouraged to attend all meetings. Class attendance is an academic matter and absences result in academic penalty. There is a built in absence for cause such as the serious illness of the student or death in the student's family, but only one absence for lecture and one absence for the study team will be excused, and that only in an emergency. If more time is missed by the student, no credit can be given for that particular class.

Academic Probation and Suspension:

Should the student's GPA on the first six (6) hours of graduate work be below 3.00, he or she will be placed on academic probation. A student on academic probation will not be allowed to enroll for more than six (6) more hours during any term the probation applies. The student on academic probation must achieve a 3.00 cumulative GPA by the time he or she has earned the next six (6) hours of graduate work. Failure to do so may result in dismissal from the program. A course in which the student has earned a grade of C or below may be repeated.

Behaviors That May Result In Temporary Suspension Or Permanent Expulsion From School:

Academic dishonesty (any participation in cheating or plagiarism); theft, deliberately damaging, destroying, defacing or misusing university or private property; consumption, possession, distribution, solicitation, attempt to purchase, possess, use or distribute, alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs or misuse of prescription drugs; fighting; sexually intimate behavior outside marriage; disruptive behavior (extremely obnoxious, aggressive, rude, disrespectful, or discourteous behavior); stalking; sexual harassment, (threatening or abusive behavior); refusal to comply with verbal or written directives given by university personnel in enforcing university regulations; possession of weapons on campus; any conduct that could be classified as a Class A misdemeanor or any class of felony under the laws of the State of Alabama.

Curriculum For Master Of Education

Degree Plans

The M.Ed. (Alternative A Certification) consists of 40 semester hours with the following breakdown: 6 three-hour core courses (18 hours total); 1 sixteen week internship in the specific discipline; and 16 hours of content specific courses (5 three-hour courses and 1 one-hour directed study course that is content specific).

The Alternative Certification may be obtained in Elementary Education and the following Secondary Education fields: Biology, English Language Arts, Mathematics, Physical Education (P-12), and Social Science. In addition to the full semester of Internship for the Alternative A Certification, classroom observation is also required each semester throughout the program via the Practicum courses which do not constitute official credit. Courses for all content areas of this program are itemized in the following tables:

Course Descriptions For Master Of Education

FED 6300 Seminar in Professional Education

An introduction to education, including an overview of professional practice with an emphasis on character and ethics, the units' conceptual framework, and special topics

FED 6301 Philosophy, Ethics and Character in Education

A study of the historical, sociological, philosophical factors underlying present day American education. Emphasized is the study of related problems requiring educational adjustments in school and society.

FED 6320 Curriculum Design, Assessment and Evaluation

Concepts of evaluation by traditional and nontraditional methods. An emphasis on building assessments through curriculum planning, setting of instructional objectives, proper test construction, and analysis of scores yielded through assessment techniques.

FED 6348 Classroom Management

A study of classroom management techniques with an emphasis on relationships with students, parents, paraprofessionals, administration, and the community. Management planning and classroom success skills are emphasized.

FED 6350 Technology of Learning

A course which focuses on the current and emerging uses of technology in the classroom, considering the different teaching and learning styles of the learner. Students must demonstrate skill in selection of software for the remediation of students and must be able to teach lessons using multimedia-authoring tools.

PY 6340 Advanced Educational Psychology and Exceptionalities

An overview of current learning theory and the relation to classroom practice, the nature and needs of exceptional children with techniques for adapting classroom instruction to the needs of the individual child.

EED 6094, 6095,6096, 6097, 6098, 6099 Clinical Experience/Practicum

A course designed to provide for the demonstration of pedagogical knowledge and skills and to foster the dispositions essential for future educators. Students will complete a minimum of 20 hours of service in an educational setting.

EED 6190 Directed Study

This course is designed for students to engage in a systematic examination of topics that are not offered elsewhere across the University. Under directed study, the student and qualified instructor work together collaboratively.

EED 6326 Reading Skills and Comprehension

The course focuses on the current trends and techniques in diagnosing pupil needs in reading, evaluating formal and informal reading assessment instruments, and identifying reading skills required in content areas.

EED 6332 Teaching Elementary Language Arts

Designed to increase and strengthen the knowledge and competencies of experienced teachers of language arts and skills in the elementary school.

EED 6335 Social Studies in the Elementary School

A critical study focused on current trends in elementary school studies, with particular attention to innovative instructional modes and relating learning to the learners' social environment.

EED 6341 Teaching of Elementary Mathematics

Methods and materials of teaching elementary school math. Current research is emphasized, as is theory concerning facilitation of the development of mathematical skills and concept.

EED 6362 Reading and Writing in the Elementary School

A basic course in teaching of reading in which the emphasis will be on the actual reading process and basic techniques, methods and materials needed to equip teachers in teaching this important subject.

EED 6368 Teaching of Elementary Science

Methods and materials of elementary school science and selected science topics. Workshop days on campus will be required.

EED 6699 Internship

Supervised participation in a local school for a full semester. Students will be supervised by a cooperating teacher in the school as well as college supervisors. This experience is provided to enable the pre-service teacher to gain expertise in actual teaching techniques as well as classroom management strategies.

SED 6094, 6095, 6096, 6097, 6098, 6099 Clinical Experiences/Practicum

A course designed to provide for the demonstration of pedagogical knowledge and skills and to foster the dispositions essential for future educators. Students will complete a minimum of 20 hours of service in an educational setting.

SED 6316 Reading in the Content Area

A study of reading development in secondary school students. Reading rate, vocabulary development, application and extension of skills and techniques in the secondary content areas.

SED 6699 Internship

Supervised participation in a local school for a full semester. Students will be supervised by a cooperating teacher in the school as well as college supervisors. This experience is provided to enable the pre-service teacher to gain expertise in actual teaching techniques as well as classroom management strategies.

BIO 6300 Human Nutrition

A graduate course that provides a broad survey of the role of nutrients (e.g. minerals and vitamins), in maintaining normal metabolic processes in humans. The course provides the basic materials needed to understand importance of nutrition in preventing and treating human diseases such as heart disease, cancer, diabetes and osteoporosis.

BIO 6351 Advanced Genetics

The course focuses on advanced genetics concepts; genetic transmission; molecular structure of DNA; genetic markers and their application; molecular aspects of DNA replication and recombination; chromosome mapping; mechanisms of mutation and DNA repair; genetic engineering; population genetics; quantitative genetics.

BIO 6362 Ecological Theory

An in depth study of ecological principles is presented using a broad environmental science and problem solving approach.

BIO 6380 History and Philosophy of Biological Research

The development of the Biological Sciences is addressed broadly in the context of the history of mankind. The changing roles of the Judeo-Christian cultures have had in the advancement of biotechnology are included in the course discussion.

BIO 6190 Directed Study

This course is designed for students to engage in a systematic examination of topics that are not offered elsewhere across the University. Under directed study, the student and qualified instructor work collaboratively.

EH 6313 Shakespeare Survey

A study of major plays including histories, tragedies, and comedies, as well as the sonnets.

EH 6301 Advanced Composition

Emphasizes clear, consistent, logical writing with emphasis on topics appropriate for students in graduate and professional programs.

EH 6345 Young Adult Literature

A study of literature appropriate for the adolescent reader. The course includes an overview of the history of young adult literature; an analysis of individual titles and characteristics; reading patterns and major concerns of adolescents; and the methods for teaching reading and writing as they relate to literature in the secondary school.

EH 6351 Studies in the English Language

An introduction to the study of the English language, including the history of English. Emphasis will be placed on how the language works and on ways to describe it. Designed primarily for students interested in English, communications, and foreign languages.

EH 6190 Directed Study

This course is designed for students to engage in a systematic examination of topics that are not offered elsewhere across the University. Under directed study, the student and qualified instructor work collaboratively.

MH 6340 Abstract Algebra

Topics for this course include sets, functions, the integers, groups, homomorphisms, rings, and ideals. Additional selected algebraic topics will be included in this course as the graduate component. Prerequisite: graduate standing. MH 6340 is offered fall of even years.

MH 6330 History of Mathematics

A course designed to provide students with a study of many famous mathematicians along with the historical development of many key mathematical concepts.

MH 6350 Plane Geometry

A course designed to provide students with an axiomatic development of plane geometry.

MH 6370 Complex Variables

This course includes properties of complex numbers, complex functions, analytic and harmonic functions, complex integration, series, residues and conformal mapping.

MH 6190 Directed Study

This course is designed for students to engage in a systematic examination of topics that are not offered elsewhere across the University. Under directed study, the student and qualified instructor work collaboratively.

PE 6329 Methods for Teaching PE to Secondary Students

Provides graduate students with an in-depth study of instructional methods, curriculum models, technology, student characteristics, and factors impacting the secondary program.

PE 6331 Health Education

A study of health information, behaviors, and myths. Emphasis will be placed on modification of personal health practices and inherent attitudes. Will include a personal health behavior modification project and research into controversial health trends.

PE 6333 Methods for Teaching Elementary PE

Provides graduate students with an in-depth study of the current research, issues, technology and trends in elementary physical education. Research into, and production of, a comprehensive teaching unit will be required.

PE 6334 Motor Learning

Study of learning theory and the developmental process as they relate to the acquisition of motor skills. Filming, diagnosis and prescription of motor movement will be an integral component of this course.

PE 6190 Directed Study

This course is designed for students to engage in a systematic examination of topics that are not offered elsewhere across the University. Under directed study, the student and qualified instructor work collaboratively.

HY 6311 Research and Writing in History

Readings and analytical historical writing covering selected topics in U.S. or World History. The major emphasis of this course is the mastery of analytical skills and writing techniques used by the historians in pursuit of their craft.

HY 6313 Historiography and the Philosophy of History

A detailed study of History as a distinct discipline and its related field of historical interpretation. Special emphasis will be given to the development of the Philosophy of History in Western culture.

HY 6370 Seminar in the Social Sciences

A study emphasizing the interrelationship of the several social science disciplines.

HY 6375 Current Issues in World History

This course will concentrate on current events and issues in an ever changing world. Emphasis will be given to exploring the interactions of history, religion, and culture as they affect governmental policies on a global scale.

HY 6190 Directed Study

This course is designed for students to engage in a systematic examination of topics that are not offered elsewhere across the University. Under directed study, the student and qualified instructor work collaboratively.

GRADUATE LIBERAL ARTS FACULTY

Jewell, Jason E. Assistant Professor; Chair, Dept. of Humanities

B.A., Harding University; M.A., Pepperdine University; Ph.D., Florida State University

Woods, Robert M. , Professor of Great Books; Director, Great Books Program

B.A., Atlanta Christian College; M.A., Barry University; M.A., College of Humanities;
Ph.D., Florida State University

Young, Michael R., Associate Professor of Liberal Arts; Director - M.L.A. Program

B.S., M.S., M.Div., Abilene Christian University; M.A., Ph.D., University of Dallas

The Master of Liberal Arts degree is a 30-hour thesis degree (27 hours of course work and 3 hours credit for the thesis). The curriculum is based on the Great Books of Western civilization and the courses are dialogic and dialectic in format. The degree consists of six core courses of 18 credit hours, Directed Readings (up to 6 credit hours), Graduate Seminar (up to 6 credit hours), and a thesis (3 credit hours with at least 3 hours of the Directed Readings used to prepare specifically for the thesis). The combined number of credit hours for Directed Readings and Graduate Seminars is 9 credit hours. The degree program allows for areas of emphasis in literature, history, philosophy, and the liberal arts in general through the combined courses of Directed Readings and Graduate Seminars. As part of the degree students also participate in two, non-credit, special subject Colloquiums per semester.

The purposes of the Master of Liberal Arts are threefold. First, the degree serves the Faulkner University mission statement as a continuance of the undergraduate degree in liberal arts in which the education of the whole person is in view by means of the broad disciplinary content of the curriculum. Secondly, the degree serves the mission statement with assertion that all learning has as its end that we may know and honor Christ. And thirdly, the degree serves the students by introducing them to the great ideas and ongoing issues of mankind through seminal texts from western civilization. The degree also prepares students to pursue doctoral studies in such disciplines as literature, history, philosophy, religion, and the humanities. Hence, the specific outcomes of the MLA degree are to:

- Expand the mission of the university by educating the whole person through a broad disciplinary content
- Demonstrate the unity of all learning with its chief end that we may know and honor Christ
- Enable students to be conversant about the perennial ideas and issues of mankind
- Prepare students for employment and/or further graduate study

The specific learning objectives reflect the focus on the great books curriculum and dialogic method through the lens of Christian thought. They are as follows:

Learning Objectives - Graduates of the MLA degree should be able to:

- Demonstrate written and oral skills
- Attain a general knowledge of the curricular core texts and ideas
- Think critically, creatively, and analytically
- Understand the relationship of Christian thought to the themes of the Great Books of Western civilization

Admissions Requirements For Master Of Liberal Arts

The Alabama Christian College of Arts and Sciences seeks to admit graduate students who have demonstrated by their academic performance that will qualify them for graduate study as well as community achievements and personal conduct that will lead them to become a credit to Faulkner University, the community, and their respective professions. Admission is privilege granted by Faulkner University rather than a right to be assumed by those meeting minimal qualifications. A student must be of good character and standing in their community.

An applicant's undergraduate program should represent a broad based curriculum including the disciplines of English, History, Natural and Social Sciences, Math, and preferably foreign language. Although the students with various undergraduate degrees can be accepted without studies in all of these disciplines, it is strongly encouraged that students intended to pursue the MLA degree plan their studies to include these fields.

Application Requirements: Applicants cannot be processed until all required materials are received. As soon as they have been received, the applicant will be notified that their file is complete. It is appropriate to assume that the application is incomplete until such notification is given. Once admission is granted, it will be valid only if the applicant enrolls during the term indicated on the application. All application materials become the property of Faulkner University; none will be returned to the applicant.

For admission to the MLA degree program, an applicant must meet the following criteria:

- Hold a completed an undergraduate degree from a regionally accredited institution.
- Submit an official transcript from each college or university attended to the director of graduate studies. Official transcripts must be sent directly from the other school to the director of graduate studies. Hand delivered copies, photocopies, and print outs of grade reports are not acceptable.
- Hold a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0. If the student does not meet this requirement, the student may request conditional admission as described under the Conditional Admission.
- Submit an acceptable GRE score: a combined verbal and quantitative score of 1000 or above on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE).
- Score 500 on TOEFL (required of all students for whom English is a second language)
- Submit three letters of recommendation with specific comments regarding the applicant's academic work, any professional experience, and ability to successfully complete graduate study. These letters are usually from the applicant's previous faculty members or supervisory personnel.
- Submit a statement of approximately 300 words specifying personal goals and how the MLA degree at Faulkner University will contribute to those goals.
- Include a $35 non-refundable application fee must along with a completed application form and other required materials listed above.
- Receive approval by the MLA Graduate Faculty Committee.

Summary of Application Materials:

- Completed application form
- An official transcript from all colleges and/or universities attended
- Scores from the GRE
- Score from TOEFL (if applicable)
- Three (3) recommendation letters

- Personal statement of goals
- A $35 non-refundable application fee

Policies For The Master Of Liberal Arts

In addition to policies described in the front section of this catalog, the following policies apply to students pursuing the Master of Liberal Arts degree.

Grading, Transcripts, and Transfer Policies

Course grades will be determined by the evaluation of assignments as stated in the syllabus for each course of the program. The thesis is graded by the supervisor and two assigned readers.

Proof of undergraduate degree(s) will require the submission of an official transcript of all course work/degree(s) to be filed in the Registrar's Office.

A student who has earned graduate credit in comparable courses (evaluated by the Director of the MLA program) from a regionally accredited institution may transfer a maximum of nine (9) semester credit hours toward the MLA degree. No grade lower than a B is transferable toward the MLA degree.

Audit

Students are permitted to audit a course provided that there is room in the classroom and that the number of auditors is not than 20% of the class enrollment. A $100.00 audit fee (per course) is charged but no credit is granted. With permission of the professor and Dean of the respective school, a student may change their registration from credit to audit or from audit to credit during the first three weeks of the semester. After this time the options are to continue as registered or to withdraw from the course.

Class Attendance

Regular class attendance is a requirement of this degree program. Because of the accelerated format of the classes and having only sixteen (16) class meetings, students are strongly encouraged to attend all meetings. Class attendance is an academic matter and absences result in academic penalty. There is a built in absence for cause such as the serious illness of the student or death in the student's family, but only one absence for lecture and one absence for the study team will be excused, and that only in an emergency. If more time is missed by the student, no credit can be given for that particular class.

Thesis Procedural Requirements

A student must submit a written thesis proposal for approval from the MLA Graduate Faculty Committee (which includes the Director of the MLA). A student must maintain a "regular admission" status if the thesis goes beyond the time period in which the student matriculated for the thesis course, MLA 6300. The continuing matriculation fee for the thesis course is $100 per semester of extension.

Supervision and Defense of Thesis. The thesis is guided by a faculty supervisor as requested by a student, agreed to by the faculty member, and approved by the Director of the program. Two readers are recommended by the Thesis Supervisor and approved by the Director. The student defends their thesis before his or her supervisor, readers, and an outside faculty member appointed by the Director.

Graduation Requirements

Student applying for graduation must earn a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 for the 30 hour credit degree (including grade for the thesis). No grade lower than a C is accepted in the degree program. No more than 6 hours credit of C may be applied toward the degree.

Graduating students must take the exit diagnostic test and pass the written comprehensive test. The thesis must be successfully defended and receive no lower than a B.

Students anticipating completion of the degree should submit an application for graduation in the first month of the semester the student plans to graduate. Students must also ensure that all financial and other obligations to the university are met prior to graduation. All graduating MLA students must participate in the commencement ceremonies unless an exemption is granted from the Director of the program.

Summary of graduation requirements:

- Earn a minimum of cumulative GPA of 3.0 for the course work and thesis
- No grade lower than a C is accepted toward the completion of the degree
- No more than 6 hours credit of C may be applied toward the degree
- Take the exit diagnostic test
- Successfully complete the comprehensive test
- Successfully defend the thesis
- Earn a minimum of a B for the thesis
- Submit application for graduation
- Ensure all financial and other obligations to the university are met
- Participate in the graduation ceremonies

Course Descriptions For Master Of Liberal Arts

MLA 5310 Introduction to Liberal Arts

This course examines ancient, medieval, and modern concepts of liberal learning along with key themes central to a liberal education. Attention is given to differing theories about liberal learning and various manifestations of this intellectual endeavor.

MLA 5320 Research and Rhetoric

This is a core course of the Master of Liberal Arts degree. The course examines the various resources, tools, and methods of research for writing within the liberal arts while also attending to the history and use of different rhetorical approaches in the craft of writing.

MLA 5330 Community and Culture

This course examines the social theory of the ancient, medieval, and modern worlds, including the various concepts of the ideal society. The focus will be on culture and civil society rather than the State. Special attention is given to the notion of culture as “religion externalized.”

MLA 5340 Justice, Law, and Government

This course examines ancient, medieval, and modern concepts of justice, along with theories on how that justice is to be achieved, particularly through the use of political power. Special attention is given to differing theories concerning the source of law and their implications of the exercise of government authority.

MLA 5350 Self and Society

This course examines the ancient, medieval, and modern concepts of the self and society, along with theories on interaction and tension between the self and society. Attention is given to differing theories concerning the relationship and their implications for various resolutions.

MLA 5360 Vice and Virtue

This core course considers the dilemma of good and evil in human life through a study of the moral codes and philosophical systems. Attention is given to the attempt to distinguish between right and wrong action as well as right and wrong desires and thinking. Source material is drawn from ancient through modern writings in theology, literature, and philosophy.

MLA 6310 Directed Readings

This course is an in-depth study of a problem, topic, idea, author, or era. The course is a contracted study between you and the professor of record. The student working with the best-qualified professor will establish a reading list, a list of written assignments, and deadlines. The course can be taken twice for six hours total.

MLA 6320 – Graduate Seminar

Various topics are offered by different faculty as needed and interest warrants. The course can be taken twice for six hours total.

MLA 6300 Thesis

The MLA thesis is the culmination of the academic program. The thesis should reflect a broad knowledge of the curricular content and display original investigation of the themes, issues, or texts studied in the program.

Colloquium

The MLA Colloquiums are non-credit informal seminars, but are required of all MLA students. The topics support the general curricular content and purpose of the MLA program and are presented by various Faulkner faculty members or outside guest lecturers. At least one colloquium is offered each fall and spring semester.

Faulkner University offers in an executive format a one year (three semesters) graduate business and management degree program for professionals who intend to expand their career horizons. The Master of Science in Management is designed to develop and enhance business, leadership and management skills. Focus is placed on career development and enhancement with a curriculum that incorporates a managerial perspective with a futuristic approach to facilitate success in today's business world. The University, in this program, seeks to preserve the relationship between an executive-oriented educational experience and the dynamics of Christian belief through the inclusion of business ethics in the curriculum.

The M.S.M. is a graduate business program primarily designed to establish, create, promote, and enhance careers that revolve around management, statistical and quantitative methodology for decision making, marketing, management human resource management and various general business areas. The M.S.M. distinguishes itself with its innovative structuring, curriculum, and scheduling, enabling ad, current and potential executives, managers, supervisors and other professionals to earn an accredited Master's degree within one year.

Applicants must have completed a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration or in a related discipline. Those with baccalaureate degrees in other disciplines will be considered for admission upon compliance with the prerequisite and recommended courses stated in the admissions criteria. All incoming students, irrespective of major or degree, must complete the prerequisite prior to enrolling in the M.S.M. program. This program is geared to enhance the learning horizons of executives by offering a blend of courses vital for a business career.

PROGRAM DESIGN & STRUCTURE

- Completion within one calendar year.
- Classes meet for 3 semesters.
- Class timing for all semesters:
  - Friday: 6:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
  - Saturday: Session 1: 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Session 2: 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

The MSM Project meets from 5:00 - 5:50 p.m. on Fridays, one time in a semester and materials are to be submitted at 5:30 p.m. another time in that semester. There are a total of 6 meeting times in the program, three for discussion and three for material submission.

- Each semester has 3 courses of 3 semester credit hours each, with an additional M.S.M. project that also comprises of 3 semester hours.
- Students enter the program in the first semester only.

CAREER OBJECTIVES

- To prepare one for employment and advancement in a wide range of positions requiring graduate business education.
- To enhance one's knowledge and skills for management functions.
- To develop understanding and appreciation for statistical and quantitative reasoning.
- To enhance one's knowledge of current managerial practices and trends.
- To augment one's skills in critical thinking and decision making for strategically positioning the institution or organization.
- To strengthen one's capacity to be effective in human resource management through understanding of skills essential for executive decision making.
- To prepare the manager for handling "crisis management" under varied circumstances.
- To develop awareness of group dynamics and organizational behavior.

Admissions To Master Of Science In Management Program

Admission to the Master of Science in Management program requires that an applicant meet the following criteria.

1. At least four years of relevant work experience is required. The Academic department will determine "relevancy" based on professional expertise and experience gained relative to business and management.
2. Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution with a minimum GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale.

3. Official copies of transcripts should be received prior to admission. Official transcripts must be received within the stipulated time frame, that is, prior to the beginning of the second semester. Transcripts must be sent from each college or university attended. Hand-delivered copies, photocopies, and print-outs of grade reports are not acceptable. Only conditional admission will be granted during the interim period to students who do not fulfill any of the stated requirements.
4. Students will be required to take the GMAT examination. Students who have not taken the GMAT may be granted conditional admission with the provision that the student will take the exam at the next scheduled date.
5. Students seeking admission to the M.S.M. program must have completed a course in Statistics, Quantitative Business Analysis, or Operations Research. It is strongly recommended that students enrolling in the program should have completed courses in Economics, Finance, Marketing, Management, and Information Systems.

Any exceptions to the admissions criteria are considered by the MSM academic review committee. The MSM academic review committee is comprised of the director, MSM department or a graduate faculty member, the associate dean, college of business, and the dean of the college of business.

Policies For The Master Of Science In Management

Grading scale for MSM

90 – 100	= A
80 – 89	= B
70 – 79	= C
60 – 69	= D
59 & Below	= F

Grades of A-, B+, B-, C+ and C- may be given at instructor's discretion.

Incomplete Grades

The grade of "I" indicates that some requirements of the course are not yet complete. It is only given for reasons which in the judgment of the instructor have been unavoidable and only given with the approval of the Dean of the School of Business. It is the responsibility of the student to initiate steps to a permanent grade by the end of the semester following the semester in which the "I" was assigned. Failure by the student to complete the course requirement within the time allotted will automatically result in the grade of "F". The department strongly discourages assigning of an incomplete grade.

Comprehensive Examination

All students must pass a written comprehensive examination.

Graduation Requirements

Successful completion of all coursework and the MSM project with a minimum GPA of 3.0 is required. A maximum of two grades of "C" can be made in the program; exceeding this limit will result in being withdrawn from the program.

Transferability of M.S.M. Credits Or Applicability to Doctoral Programs

Faulkner University's graduate program in Business is offered in the format of an executive education program. Because of the diversity in post-graduate or doctoral programs (numerous programs across the nation and in various fields within the broad area of business, related to business, or outside of business) and the variety of entrance competencies for entry therein, it is not feasible for the University to undertake to advise students as to whether their programs of study at Faulkner will satisfy the pre-requisites of other studies at other universities. Thus, the student contemplating transfer or post-graduate or doctoral work at another institution bears the sole responsibility for ensuring that work done at Faulkner will satisfy the program requirements at a different university.
