We are a small-town church located in a close-knit farming and ranching community (35 miles south of Tulsa). We are a church family of believers who love and care for one another, our community and every soul the Lord gives us the opportunity to meet. Key responsibilities will include delivering biblically sound sermons Sunday morning and teaching class on Sunday morning, Sunday evening and Wednesday nights. We would like for our minister to help in our evangelist efforts of conducting Bible Studies as well as visiting our sick and shut-in members. Our current minister is available to lead singing, help teach classes and for mentoring purposes. Compensation: $45K-$55K salary (commensurate with experience). We have a furnished apartment in the church building with kitchen, shower, and washer/dryer. We will pay for your utilities. More information can be found on our Facebook page.
