DETERMINATION:

Does the Faulkner University MEd in School Counseling program, meet the educational requirements for initial licensure as a school counselor in Wyoming?

Yes

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE:

It appears that this program leads to licensure in Alabama, and looks like it would lead to licensure in Wyoming for a School Counselor. Wyoming would require any candidates to submit an Institutional Recommendation from Faulkner University that attests the individual has met program and licensure requirements for Alabama. There are a few additional state-specific requirements that candidates can meet outside of the program which does not impact whether or not the program from Faulkner University meets Wyoming requirements.
