

Full-Time Preaching Minister

Rock Creek church of Christ

2408 Morton Rd, Warrior, AL 35118

About Us

The Rock church of Christ is a vibrant, biblically grounded congregation dedicated to worshiping God in spirit and truth, fostering spiritual growth, and serving our community. We are seeking a full-time Preaching Minister to lead our congregation in faith, teaching, and outreach, rooted in the principles of the New Testament.

Job Description

The Preaching Minister will serve as the primary spiritual leader and teacher, delivering sound biblical preaching and fostering a Christ-centered community. This role involves working collaboratively with elders, deacons, and members to advance the mission of the church.

Key Responsibilities:

Preaching and Teaching: Prepare and deliver engaging, scripturally sound sermons for Sunday morning and evening services, as well as Wednesday Bible study classes. Teach additional Bible classes as needed for all age groups.

Evangelism and Outreach: Actively engage in personal and community evangelism to share the gospel and grow the congregation. Develop and lead outreach programs to connect with the local community.

Member Care: Provide spiritual counseling, visitation, and support to members, including hospital visits, homebound care, and guidance during life events such as weddings, funerals, and baptisms.

Discipleship and Education: Mentor members in their spiritual growth, equipping them to live out their faith. Develop and implement Bible study programs to deepen scriptural understanding.

Collaboration with Leadership: Work closely with elders and deacons to plan worship services, set congregational goals, and ensure alignment with New Testament principles.

Community Involvement: Represent the church in the local community, building relationships with other organizations and individuals to promote unity and service.

Administrative Duties: Assist in planning and organizing church events, maintain regular office hours, and contribute to church communications (e.g., bulletins, social media, or website updates).

Qualifications:

Faith and Character: A faithful member of the Church of Christ with a deep commitment to New Testament teachings and a cappella worship. Must exhibit Christ-like character, integrity, and a servant's heart.

Education: Bachelor's degree in Bible, Ministry, or a related field from a Church of Christ-affiliated institution preferred. Equivalent experience or training (e.g., preaching school) will be considered.

Experience: Prior preaching or ministerial experience preferred but not required. Candidates should demonstrate strong preaching, teaching, and interpersonal skills.

Skills: Excellent communication and public speaking abilities. Strong knowledge of scripture and ability to apply it to contemporary issues. Organizational and leadership skills to manage multiple responsibilities.

Personal Attributes: Approachable, compassionate, and able to connect with diverse age groups. Passionate about evangelism and community engagement.

Compensation:

Salary commensurate with experience and education.

Work Schedule: - Full-time position with flexible hours, including regular office hours and availability for emergencies.

- Expected to participate in Sunday morning and afternoon devotional, Wednesday Bible study, and other church events as needed.

How to Apply

Interested candidates should submit the following:

- A cover letter expressing your interest and fit for the role.
- A resume detailing your education, experience, and references.
- Links to or recordings of two to three sermons (if available).
- A brief statement of faith outlining your beliefs and approach to ministry.
