

FAULKNER UNIVERSITY

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION FACT SHEET

MASTER OF ARTS/SCIENCE IN SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY

South Carolina

WEBSITE: <https://www.asha.org/advocacy/state/info/sc/licensure/>

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Name: Mack Williams
Email Address: Contact.Speech@llr.sc.gov
Telephone Number: 803-896-4655

DETERMINATION:

Does the Faulkner University MA/MS in SLP program, which is accredited by ASHA/CAA, meet the educational requirements for initial licensure as a Speech Language Pathologist in South Carolina?

Yes

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE:

Completion of 9 months (30 clock hours per week) of full-time, supervised professional employment; and
Passage of an examination; or
Meet ASHA's standards for the certificate of clinical competence or its equivalent, in effect at the time of the application;
or Have current ASHA CCC's or its equivalent as approved by the Board
Completion of 9 months (30 clock hours per week) of full-time, supervised professional employment; and
Passage of an examination; or
Meet ASHA's standards for the certificate of clinical competence or its equivalent, in effect at the time of the application;
or Have current ASHA CCC's or its equivalent as approved by the Board

STATE VERIFICATION:

Has South Carolina verified the above determination made by Faulkner University?

No response as of June 1, 2024

DISCLAIMER:

The institution has used its best judgment to make the determination whether or not this program meets the requirements for obtainment of licensure. Furthermore, this determination is made annually and this page was most recently updated June 1, 2024. It is recommended the student check with the contact information provided above to ensure obtainment of licensure can be achieved.