

FAULKNER UNIVERSITY

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION FACT SHEET

MASTER OF ARTS/SCIENCE IN SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY

Virginia

WEBSITE: <https://www.asha.org/advocacy/state/info/va/licensure/>

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Name: Leslie Knachel
Email Address: AudBD@dhp.virginia.gov
Telephone Number: 804-597-4132

DETERMINATION:

Does the Faulkner University MA/MS in SLP program, which is accredited by ASHA/CAA, meet the educational requirements for initial licensure as a Speech Language Pathologist in Virginia?

Yes

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE:

Holds a current and unrestricted Certificate of Clinical Competence in the area in which they seek licensure issued by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, certification issued by the American Board of Audiology or any other accrediting body recognized by the board. Verification of currency shall be in the form of a certified letter from a recognized accrediting body issued within six months prior to licensure; and Has passed the qualifying examination from an accrediting body recognized by the board. Holds a current and unrestricted Certificate of Clinical Competence in the area in which they seek licensure issued by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, certification issued by the American Board of Audiology or any other accrediting body recognized by the board. Verification of currency shall be in the form of a certified letter from a recognized accrediting body issued within six months prior to licensure; and Has passed the qualifying examination from an accrediting body recognized by the board.

STATE VERIFICATION:

Has Virginia verified the above determination made by Faulkner University?

No response as of June 1, 2024

DISCLAIMER:

The institution has used its best judgment to make the determination whether or not this program meets the requirements for obtainment of licensure. Furthermore, this determination is made annually and this page was most recently updated June 1, 2024. It is recommended the student check with the contact information provided above to ensure obtainment of licensure can be achieved.