

FAULKNER UNIVERSITY

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION FACT SHEET

MASTER OF ARTS/SCIENCE IN SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY

West Virginia

WEBSITE: <https://www.asha.org/advocacy/state/info/wv/licensure/>

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Name: Pam Coughlin

Email Address: pamela.a.coughlin@wv.gov

Telephone Number: 304-473-4289

DETERMINATION:

Does the Faulkner University MA/MS in SLP program, which is accredited by ASHA/CAA, meet the educational requirements for initial licensure as a Speech Language Pathologist in West Virginia?

Yes

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE:

Postgraduate professional experience or verification of Certificate of Clinical Competence (CCC); any person who completes a clinical doctorate in audiology (AuD) from an accredited institution is deemed to have fulfilled the postgraduate professional experience;

Passage of the ETS national exam;

Jurisprudence exam Postgraduate professional experience or verification of Certificate of Clinical Competence (CCC); any person who completes a clinical doctorate in audiology (AuD) from an accredited institution is deemed to have fulfilled the postgraduate professional experience;

Passage of the ETS national exam;

Jurisprudence exam

STATE VERIFICATION:

Has West Virginia verified the above determination made by Faulkner University?

No response as of June 1, 2024

DISCLAIMER:

The institution has used its best judgment to make the determination whether or not this program meets the requirements for obtainment of licensure. Furthermore, this determination is made annually and this page was most recently updated June 1, 2024. It is recommended the student check with the contact information provided above to ensure obtainment of licensure can be achieved.