Classification of student response to a Professionalism Infraction Notice

Circle the classes that best describe the student's response to the conduct infraction.

	Class 1	Class 2	Class 3	Class 4
Recognition	Spontaneously recognized that behavior was inappropriate	Recognized error when brought to their attention	Receptive to recognizing inappropriate nature of their behavior after discussion	Remained resistant to recognizing inappropriate action or denied it occurred
Responsibility	Spontaneously accepted responsibility	Accepted responsibility when described to them	Remained resistant to accepting responsibility but agreed to comply anyway	Rejected responsibility
Sample Content	'I forgot to make a note of that schedule change; I'm sorry I missed it and embarrassed I messed up.'	'I had no idea they took attendance at orientation so seriously. It won't happen again.'	'I realize the course wants it done a certain way. I still think it's unnecessary, but I'll do what they say.'	'The course is blowing it way out of proportion. I spoke my mind and they are taking it out of context.'
